7907 Makati Avenue, Salcedo Village
Bel-Air Makati City, 1209

Attention: Atty. Oliver O. Leonardo
Director, Markets and Securities Regulation Department

Gentlemen:

We are submitting the Definitive Information Statement (DIS) of GT Capital Holdings, Inc. ("GT Capital" or the "Corporation"), in line with the Corporation's 2026 Annual Stockholders' Meeting, to be held on May 13, 2026.

Pursuant to your good office's letter and checklist of comments on GT Capital's Preliminary Information Statement, which we both received on March 31, 2026, we present the following information as proof of our compliance thereto:

- I. General comment: compliance with Section 49 of the Revised Corporation Code (RCC)
 - A table or list of the required disclosure/ information required by Section 49 of the Revised Corporation Code and the page number or section of the DIS where the disclosure/ information can be found is attached to this letter.
- II. Mode of Distribution
 - GT Capital will not avail of the alternative mode of distribution as provided in the SEC Notice dated March 11, 2026. Instead, the Corporation will distribute its Definitive Information Statement to its stockholders by distribution of physical copies through its Stock and Transfer Agent and by uploading it online at GT Capital's website and PSE Edge. A discussion on the mode of distribution is made in the Notice of Meeting and in the Information Statement (p. 6).
- III. Uploading of Information Statement and Management Report (SRC Rule 20.3.3.5)
 - A copy of GT Capital's Preliminary Information Statement, which contains the Corporation's Management Report, is uploaded to GT Capital's website for downloading by interested parties: <https://www.gtcapital.com.ph/investor-relations/financial-reports>. The Definitive Information Statement will likewise be uploaded to GT Capital's website upon approval by the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- IV. Voting Securities & Principal Holders
 - The following information has been updated to the latest date practicable (March 31, 2026): (1) Security Ownership of Certain Record and Beneficial Owners of more than 5% and (2) Security Ownership of Management (p. 7-10).
 - A negative statement regarding stockholders under PCD Nominee Corporation (Filipino and Non-Filipino) owning at least 5% of the Corporation's voting stock was also provided (p. 9)
- V. Directors and Executive Officers
 - A statement that no director has resigned or declined to stand for re-election to the Board of Directors since the 2025 Annual Stockholders' Meeting held on May 14, 2025 because of a disagreement with the registrant on any matter relating to the latter's operations, policies or practices was added to the information statement (p. 16)

VI. Market Information (Share Price)

- The share prices in the Definitive Information Statement were updated to include (1) the high and low sales price for the 1st quarter of 2026, (2) the latest share price available before distribution date (as of April 7, 2026).

VII. Shareholder information

- The following shareholder information has been updated to the latest date practicable (March 31, 2026): (1) approximate number of holders of GT Capital's common shares, (2) names of the Top Twenty (20) shareholders of such common shares, (3) the number of shares held, and (4) the percentage of total shares outstanding held by each shareholder.

In addition to the changes required by the said checklist of comments, we also added a copy of the Minutes of the previous Annual Stockholders' Meeting held on May 14, 2025 to comply with Section 49 of the RCC.

Very truly yours,

Stockholders may secure physical copies of the Corporation's Definitive Information Statement through its Stock and Transfer Agent. Online copies will also be available at GT Capital's website and at PSE Edge.

WE ARE NOT ASKING YOU FOR A PROXY AND YOU ARE REQUESTED NOT TO SEND A PROXY.

Voting Securities

The record date for purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to vote is April 10, 2026. The total number of shares outstanding and entitled to vote in the stockholders' meeting is 389,584,587 shares composed of 215,284,587 Common Shares and 174,300,000 Voting Preferred Shares. Stockholders are entitled to cumulative voting in the election of the Board of Directors, as provided in the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines (the "Revised Corporation Code").

Item 2. Dissenters' Right of Appraisal

Pursuant to Section 80 of the Revised Corporation Code, a stockholder has the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of his shares in the following instances:

- (a) In case any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholders or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
- (b) In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Revised Corporation Code;
- (c) In case of merger or consolidation; and
- (d) In case of investment of corporate funds for any purpose other than the primary purpose of the Corporation.

A stockholder must have voted against the proposed corporate action in order to avail himself of the appraisal right. The procedure for the exercise by a dissenting stockholder of his appraisal right is as follows:

- (a) The dissenting stockholder shall make a written demand on the corporation within 30 days after the date on which the vote was taken for payment of the fair value of his shares. The failure of the stockholder to make the demand within the 30-day period shall be deemed a waiver on his appraisal right;
- (b) If the proposed corporate action is implemented or effected, the corporation shall pay to such stockholder, upon surrender of corresponding certificate(s) of stock within 10 days after demanding payment for his shares (Section 85), the fair value thereof; and

- (c) Upon payment of the agreed or awarded price, the stockholder shall transfer his share to the Corporation.

There is no agenda item in the Annual Stockholders' Meeting of the Corporation that will trigger the right of appraisal of stockholders.

Item 3. Interest of Certain Persons in or Opposition to Matters to be Acted Upon

- (a) No director or officer of the Corporation since the beginning of the last fiscal year, nominee for election as director, or associate of the foregoing persons, has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon, other than election to office.
- (b) No director in the Corporation has given written notice that he intends to oppose any action to be taken by the Corporation at the meeting.

B. CONTROL AND COMPENSATION INFORMATION

Item 4. Voting Securities and Principal Holders Thereof

- (a) As of March 31, 2026, the total number of shares outstanding and entitled to vote in the stockholders' meeting and the percentage holdings are as follows:

- (c) Stockholders may, subject to validation, attend, participate and vote at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting by remote communication, in absentia, or by proxy. A stockholder who attends in absentia as well as a stockholder participating by remote communication shall be deemed present for purposes of quorum. Unless otherwise provided by law, each stockholder shall have one (1) vote for each share of stock entitled to vote, whether Common or Voting Preferred, and recorded in his name in the books of the Corporation. Stockholders are entitled to cumulative voting in the election of the board of directors, as provided in the Revised Corporation Code. At all meetings of the stockholders, all elections and all questions shall be decided by the plurality of vote of stockholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present, except in cases where other provision is made under a statute. Voting shall be done by ballots or by proxy. All votes received shall be tabulated by the office of the Corporate Secretary and the stock transfer agent, and shall be validated by an external independent party. The Corporate Secretary shall report the results on the voting of each matter during the meeting.

In the election of Directors, each stockholder shall be entitled to cumulate his votes in the manner prescribed by Title III, Section 23 of the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines.

No director has resigned or declined to stand for re-election to the Board of Directors since the 2025 Annual Stockholders' Meeting held on May 14, 2025 because of a disagreement with the registrant on any matter relating to the latter's operations, policies or practices was added to the information statement.

Nominee Directors

As of the date of this report, the nominees for independent directors are Messrs. Peter B. Favila, Rene J. Buenaventura, Gil B. Genio, Ms. Consuelo D. Garcia and Mr. Carlos G. Dominguez III. The five (5) nominees for independent directors are not related either by consanguinity or affinity to the person who nominated them.

Based on Section 2.1.4 of GT Capital's Manual on Corporate Governance, the stockholders must elect at least three (3) independent directors as defined by existing laws and regulations.

Aside from the above nominees for independent directors, the other nominees for director are Messrs. Arthur Vy Ty, Alfred Vy Ty, Francisco C. Sebastian, Carmelo Maria Luza Bautista, David T. Go, and Atty. Regis V. Puno.

All the nominees are incumbent directors of GT Capital. The experience and qualifications of the nominated incumbent directors are shown above.

Review of qualifications of candidates nominated as Directors, including Independent Directors, is conducted by the Nominations Committee prior to the stockholders' meeting. The Nominations Committee prepares a Final List of Candidates who have passed the Guidelines, Screening Policies and Parameters for nomination as Director of the Corporation, and which list contains information about the nominees. Only nominees whose names appear on the Final List of Candidates shall be eligible for election as Directors of the Corporation. No other nomination shall be entertained or allowed on the floor during the actual Annual Stockholders' Meeting.

The Directors of the Corporation are elected at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting and until their respective successors have been appointed or elected and qualified. The Directors possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications provided for in the Securities Regulation Code (SRC) and its Implementing Rules and Regulations, as well as the Corporation's By-Laws.

In case of resignation, disqualification or cessation of any directorship, and only after notice has been made with the Commission within five (5) days from such resignation, disqualification or cessation, may the vacancy be filled by the vote of at least a majority of the remaining directors, if still constituting a quorum, upon the nomination of the Nominations Committee; otherwise, said vacancies shall be filled by stockholders in a regular or special meeting called for that purpose. A director so elected to fill a vacancy shall serve only for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office.

The Nominations Committee created by the Board under its Manual on Corporate Governance nominated the following for election to the Board of Directors at the forthcoming Annual Stockholders' Meeting:

Francisco C. Sebastian	Consuelo D. Garcia
Alfred Vy Ty	Gil B. Genio
Arthur Vy Ty	Carlos G. Dominguez III
Carmelo Maria Luza Bautista	Dr. David T. Go
Peter B. Favila	Atty. Regis V. Puno
Rene J. Buenaventura

The Corporation has complied with the Guidelines set forth by SRC Rule 38 regarding the Nomination and Election of Independent Directors. The same provision has been incorporated in the Amended By-Laws of the Corporation.

GT Capital Holdings, Inc. (“GT Capital” or the “Parent Company” or the “Company”) consolidated net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company grew by 17% from Php28.78 billion in 2024 to Php33.68 billion in 2025. The increase was principally due to the 8% growth in consolidated revenues with growth coming primarily from automotive operations (+8%), and equity in net income of associates and joint ventures (+19%).

Core net income, likewise, grew by 8% from Php28.14 billion in 2024 to Php30.47 billion in 2025. Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2025 amounted to Php30.47 billion, after deducting the Parent Company’s Php3.42 billion gain on bargain purchase from the purchase price allocation relating to its acquisition of additional Metrobank shares, Php0.20 billion share in tax incentives utilized by Toyota Motor Philippines Corporation (“TMP”) from its participation in the government’s Comprehensive Automotive Resurgence Strategy (“CARS”) program and Php0.50 billion share in various non-recurring gains of Metro Pacific Investments Corporation’s (“MPIC”), and adding back Php0.91 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations and other adjustments. Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2024 amounted to Php28.14 billion, after deducting the Php0.77 billion share in various non-recurring gains of MPIC, and adding back Php0.13 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations.

The financial statements of Federal Land, Inc. ("Federal Land"), TMP, and GT Capital Auto and Mobility Holdings, Inc. ("GTCAM") are consolidated in the financial statements of the Group. The investments in other operating companies Metropolitan Bank and Trust Company ("Metrobank"), AXA Philippines Life and General Insurance Corporation ("AXA Philippines"), Toyota Financial Services Philippines Corporation ("TFSPC"), MPIC and Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation ("SMFC") are reported through equity accounting.

Of the eight (8) operating companies, TMP, GTCAM, Metrobank, MPIC, and AXA Philippines, posted growth in net income, while Federal Land, TFSPC, and SMFC reported declines in their respective net income.

Automotive operations comprising the sale of assembled and imported auto vehicles and spare parts grew by 8% from Php282.63 billion in 2024 to Php305.72 billion in 2025 due to the 4.3% increase in wholesale volume from 218,031 to 227,337 units. Retail sales volume, likewise, grew by 5.2% from 218,019 units to 229,447 units.

Equity in net income of associates and joint ventures increased by 19% from Php25.31 billion in 2024 to Php30.06 billion in 2025 primarily due to Parent Company's Php3.42 billion gain on bargain purchase in relation to the acquisition of additional 2.69% stake in Metrobank, and increases in the net income of the following associates:

1. Metrobank 3% from Php48.14 billion to Php49.72 billion supported by modest asset expansion, resilient margins, healthy trading income and contained cost growth; and
2. MPIC from Php27.88 billion to Php29.69 billion due to higher core income contributions from its operating companies.

Real estate sales and interest income from real estate sales declined by Php2.83 billion from Php5.16 billion to Php2.33 billion reflecting the softer real estate market, and a lower percentage of completion (POC) as Federal Land's condominiums under construction approach turnover.

Interest income dropped by Php0.27 billion due to lower short-term investments and interest-bearing loans receivable.

Sales of goods and services declined by 10% or Php0.12 billion due to lower sales volume in the fuel business and food franchises due to building renovations. A subsidiary of Federal Land operates a petroleum service station and is also engaged in food and restaurant business.

Other income grew by 21% from Php3.66 billion to Php4.45 billion mostly due to TMP's utilization of tax credits from the government's CARS program and its gain on sale of hailstorm-damaged units.

Consolidated costs and expenses increased by 7% from Php278.00 billion in 2024 to Php297.97 billion in 2025. TMP contributed Php242.10 billion comprising cost of goods sold for manufacturing and trading activities, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. GTCAM contributed Php41.60 billion consisting of cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. Federal Land contributed Php9.19 billion consisting of cost of real estate sales, cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses, cost of rental and interest expenses. GT Capital Parent Company accounted for the balance of Php5.08 billion consisting of cost of real estate sales, cost of rental, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses.

Cost of goods and services sold grew by 8% from Php201.97 billion to Php217.91 billion relative to the increase in auto sales.

Cost of goods manufactured and sold increased by 9% from Php42.75 billion to Php46.64 billion due to higher number of sales of assembled vehicles.

Interest expense declined by 6% from Php7.31 billion to Php6.90 billion due to settlement of loans payables.

Cost of real estate sales decreased from Php1.87 billion to Php1.52 billion relative to lower POC as Federal Land's condominiums under construction approach turnover.

Cost of rental declined by 5% due to lower operating expenses incurred in the leasing business, particularly utilities and taxes.

Net income attributable to non-controlling interest rose by Php0.67 billion from Php8.73 billion to Php9.40 billion due to higher net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly owned.

The major changes in GT Capital's consolidated balance sheet from December 31, 2024 to December 31, 2025 are as follows:

Consolidated assets grew by Php44.95 billion from Php474.09 billion as of December 31, 2024 to Php519.04 billion as of December 31, 2025. Total liabilities increased by Php7.47 billion from Php194.24 billion to Php201.71 billion while total equity increased by Php37.48 billion from Php279.85 billion to Php317.33 billion.

ASSETS

Cash and cash equivalents amounted to Php19.40 billion as of December 31, 2025 consisting of cash and money market placements with less than 90-day terms.

Short-term investments amounting to Php2.18 billion pertains to time deposit placements with maturities of more than 90 days but less than 1 year.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss declined from Php0.91 billion to Php0.13 due to Parent Company's partial withdrawals of its Unit Investment Trust Fund (UITF) investments to partially fund the payment of long-term debt upon its maturity.

Current portion of receivables increased by Php3.63 billion from Php28.19 billion to Php31.82 billion mostly due to TMP's extension of credit terms to auto dealers, increase in GTCAM dealers' receivables from customers and Federal Land's reclassification from noncurrent portion of its long-term loans receivables.

Contract assets increased by Php0.33 billion attributable to the higher POC over the contractual right to an amount collectible from Federal Land's unit buyers.

Inventories increased by Php8.40 billion from Php77.21 billion to Php85.61 billion mainly due to higher inventory levels of TMP and auto dealers.

Due from related parties increased by Php0.14 billion mostly coming from Federal Land's receivable from its related parties.

Prepayments and other current assets grew by 20% from Php11.79 billion to Php14.15 billion attributable to higher ad valorem tax deposits, creditable taxes withheld and input VAT.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income rose by Php1.69 billion from Php20.10 billion to Php21.79 billion due to unrealized marked-to-market gains on investments.

Noncurrent portion of contract assets increased by 6% or Php0.30 billion attributable to higher POC over the contractual right to an amount collectible from Federal Land's unit buyers, settlement of which is expected to occur beyond one year.

Investments in associates and joint ventures increased by Php32.57 billion from Php248.62 billion to Php281.19 billion consisting of the Php30.06 billion equity share in net income, Php3.46 billion equity share in other comprehensive income and Php8.77 billion additional investments, offset by Php9.67 billion dividends received and Php0.05 billion effect of intercompany transactions elimination and other adjustments.

Other noncurrent assets increased by Php0.10 billion from Php0.40 billion to Php0.50 billion due to higher rental deposits, utilities, guarantee and construction bonds, and higher advances to suppliers.

LIABILITIES

Accounts and other payables increased to Php60.35 billion from Php49.84 billion primarily due to the higher trade payables of Federal Land and TMP's trade payables and accrued expenses.

Short-term debt grew by Php5.63 billion from Php29.91 billion to Php35.54 billion consisting of Php14.18 billion net loan availments of the Parent Company and TMP, offset by Php8.55 billion net loan payments of Federal Land and GTCAM.

Current portion of long-term debt declined by Php5.33 billion from Php17.45 billion to Php12.12 billion primarily due to Parent Company's settlement of Php12.93 billion in long-term debt which matured in March 2025.

Customers' deposits grew by 11% from Php1.59 billion to Php1.77 billion with TMP and GTCAM accounting for Php1.19 billion and Php0.58 billion, respectively.

Current portion of liabilities on purchased properties declined by Php0.15 billion due to scheduled payment.

Due to related parties increased by P0.10 billion from Php0.44 billion to Php0.54 billion attributable to higher payables by Federal Land to its related parties.

Income tax payable declined by Php0.53 billion from Php1.14 billion to Php0.61 billion attributable to lower taxable income reported by the Group in the last quarter of 2025 compared to the last quarter of 2024.

Dividends payable, which increased by Php0.13 billion, reflect dividends payable to minority shareholders of Toyota Manila Bay Corporation.

Deferred tax liabilities decreased by 17% or Php0.87 billion mostly due to tax impact of elimination of intercompany transactions.

Other noncurrent liabilities rose by 14% or Php0.43 billion due to increase in refundable and other deposits.

EQUITY

Unappropriated retained earnings increased by Php31.99 billion from Php161.33 billion to Php193.32 billion arising from the Php33.68 billion consolidated net income attributable to the Parent Company in 2025 and Php0.40 billion reversal of appropriations, net of Php2.08 billion cash dividends declared.

Appropriated retained earnings of Php0.40 billion were reverted to unappropriated retained earnings upon the approval of the BOD of the Parent Company.

Other comprehensive income grew to Php5.68 billion from Php1.10 billion due to the mark-to-market gains on financial assets measured at FVOCI of subsidiaries and associates.

Non-controlling interests increased by Php1.32 billion from Php17.33 billion to Php18.65 billion arising from Php9.41 billion share in net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly owned, offset by Php8.10 billion dividend of other shareholders of the Group.

1. Operating efficiency ratio is the ratio of total operating expenses (excluding provisions for credit and impairment loss and income tax) to total operating income (excluding share in net income of associates and joint venture).

2. Return on average asset is the net income attributable to equity holders of the parent company divided by the average total assets

3. Return on average equity is the net income attributable to equity holders of the parent company divided by the average total equity attributable to equity holders of the parent company

4. Capital adequacy ratios as of December 31, 2023, 2024 and 2025 were computed based on Basel III standards.

5. Non-performing loans ratio is the ratio of net non-performing loans divided by total loans – excluding interbank loans.

6. Non-performing loans coverage ratio is the ratio of the total allowance for probable losses on loans divided by gross non-performing loans

Metrobank net income attributable to equity holders grew by 3.3% from Php48.1 billion in 2024 to Php49.7 billion. This was primarily due to increases in interest income on loans and receivables and investment securities.

Net interest income grew by 9.2% from Php114.1 billion in 2024 to Php124.6 billion in 2025, accounting for 79% of total operating income. Gross loans and receivables increased by 8.8% from Php1.8 trillion in 2024 to Php2.0 trillion in 2025 driven by the growth across all segments, both in commercial and consumer loans. On the other hand, total deposits edged up to Php2.7 trillion in 2025, with CASA deposits growing by 5.9%. As a result, CASA ratio increased to 59.2% in 2025 compared with 57.8% in 2024.

Non-interest income also increased by 11.6% from Php30.0 billion in 2024 to Php33.5 billion in 2025 on account of a 6% growth in fee-based income and a Php2.6 billion increase in trading, securities and forex gain from Php5.6 billion in 2024 to Php8.2 billion in 2025.

Total assets grew by 10.2% from Php3.5 trillion as of December 31, 2024 to Php3.9 trillion as of December 31, 2025, primarily due to increases in cash, net loans and receivables across all segments, investment securities, investment in associates and joint venture and property & equipment, partially offset by decreases in due from BSP & other banks, interbank loans receivable and SPURA, and deferred tax assets.

Total liabilities, increased by 10.4% from Php3.1 trillion in 2024 to Php3.5 trillion as of December 31, 2025, due mainly to increases in deposit liabilities, bonds payable, bills payable and securities sold under repurchase agreements, income taxes payable, partially offset by decline in accrued interest and other expenses.

Equity attributable to equity holders of the parent company stood at Php421.7 billion as of December 31, 2025 higher by 9.4% compared to the previous year, led by the growth in net income reported for the year, favorable movement in net unrealized loss recognized in investment securities at FVOCI but slightly offset by the net effect of cash dividends paid.

2. Debt to equity ratio is the ratio of total loans divided by total equity attributable to equity holders of the parent company

Federal Land's reservation sales amounted to Php15.0 billion in 2025, 9.8% decline year-on-year due to absence of launches in 2025 and lower available inventory in Bonifacio Global City.

Real estate sales decreased by 67.0% to Php2.0 billion due to the absence of lot sales and lower revenue recognized from percentage-of-completion as projects approach turnover. Total revenues ended at Php9.5 billion, 20.7% lower than the previous year, reflecting lower real estate sales offset by higher contribution from joint venture projects and asset sales. Net income attributable to equity holders of the parent declined by 30.3% from Php749.7 million in 2024 to Php522.3 million in 2025 in line with the decline in revenues.

Total assets of Federal Land ended at Php131.6 billion as of December 31, 2025, from Php126.1 billion in 2024, due to the purchase of lot and increase in net income.

2. Based on CAMPI Market Data as of December 31, 2025

TMP's consolidated sales increased from Php245.3 billion in 2024 to Php263.9 billion in 2025, driven by a 4.3% increase in wholesale volume from 218,031 to 227,337 units. TMP's retail sales volume grew at a faster pace by 5.2% from 218,019 to 229,447 units, faster than the industry retail sales volume which shrunk by 0.8% from 469,062 to 465,273 units². As a result, TMP's market share improved by 2.8% from 46.5% in 2024 to 49.3% as of the same period in 2025.

Consolidated sales was primarily driven by the strong retail sales, particularly the Vios and Avanza. TMP also benefited from greater demand for hybrid electric vehicles which saw a sales volume growth of 8.5% to 19,516 vehicles for Toyota and Lexus models combined. TMP further expanded its electrified offering with the launch of the entry level hybrid Ativ, full battery electric BZ4X, and GR Corolla in the fourth quarter. Together with the 2024 launch of the Corolla Cross HEV, Land Cruiser Prado, Lexus LBX, and Lexus GX, The Next Generation Tamaraw and a refreshed Camry, these new vehicles broadened TMP's already wide range of automotive offerings.

Gross profit margin remained flat at 14.5% between 2024 and 2025. This was mainly due to the favorable models mix and strong Philippine peso vs. the US dollar in the first half of the year. This was further supported by strong performance from the spare parts and services businesses. This improvement was softened by higher advertising expenses, and warranty claims. As a result, TMP attained an operating profit margin of 8.5% in 2025 comparable to 8.6% in the same period of 2024.

Consolidated net income attributable to equity holders reached Php19.0 billion in 2025, higher by 18.9% compared to Php15.9 billion recorded in the same period of the previous year on account of the stronger sales performance, favorable models mix, and the favorable impact of foreign exchange differential from the weaker US dollar in the first half of 2025. Other income also increased year on year due to an asset sale and the utilization of CARS incentives in the fourth quarter.

As of December 31, 2025, TMP directly owned six (6) dealer outlets namely Toyota Makati with one (1) branch – Toyota Bicutan; Toyota San Fernando in Pampanga with two (2) branches – Toyota Plaridel, Bulacan and Toyota Tarlac; and Lexus Manila, situated in Bonifacio Global City, Taguig.

1. Includes GT Capital's 58.1% share in TMBC's net income. In October 2023, GT Capital and GTCAM signed a Deed of Assignment of Share of Stocks (DOAS) wherein GT Capital offered to subscribe to common voting shares of GTCAM and to transfer to GTCAM its investment in 58.1% of TMBC's common shares. The DOAS became effective upon the SEC's approval of GTCAM's increase in authorized capital stock in December 2023. As a result, GTCAM took control and, accordingly, consolidated all assets and liabilities of TMBC effective December 2023. The consolidation of TMBC under GTCAM resulted in a gain on bargain purchase amounting to Php2.2 billion in GTCAM's 2023 consolidated net income, which is eliminated in GT Capital's consolidated financial statements.

GTCAM currently owns three (3) dealer outlets namely Toyota Manila Bay with four (4) branches – Toyota Abad Santos, Toyota Cubao and Toyota Marikina, all situated within Metro Manila, and Toyota Dasmariñas in Cavite; Toyota Santa Rosa in Laguna; and Toyota Subic situated in the Subic Bay Freeport Zone, Zambales. GTCAM also holds majority ownership in GT Mobility Ventures, Inc., which holds investments in JBA Philippines, Inc. and Premium Warranty Services Philippines, Inc.

Consolidated sales increased by 11.8% from Php37.4 billion in 2024 to Php41.8 billion in 2025. This growth was driven by a 4.0% increase in automotive retail sales volume rising from 27,736 units in 2024 to 28,846 units in 2025, along with a 6.1% increase in units serviced, from 209,417 to 222,250 units during the same period.

The growth in automotive retail sales was primarily driven by the strong sales performance of Toyota Santa Rosa, which helped offset the slower performance of Toyota Manila Bay, amid the shift of growth in the automotive market toward provincial areas. As a result, GTCAM's consolidated penetration rate – or its share in total Toyota nationwide sales –declined slightly from 12.7% in 2024 to 12.6% in 2025.

Meanwhile, GTCAM's consolidated net income attributable to equity holders reached Php554.0 million, representing a 9.9% increase from Php504.0 million in 2024. The growth was mainly driven by higher retail sales volume, stronger after-sales performance, and increased commission income from insured units.

Toyota Financial Services Philippines Corporation (TFSPC)

	In Million Pesos
	2025	2024	2023
Gross Interest Income	16,659.9	15,149.1	12,768.4

Finance Receivable-net	168,016.5	154,818.0	136,518.4

TFSPC recorded a 10% growth in gross interest income from Php15.1 billion in 2024 to Php16.7 billion in 2025, as finance receivables increased by 9% from Php154.8 billion to Php168.0 billion on a year-on-year basis. Booking volume was flat from 68,260 units in 2024 to 68,166 units in 2025, despite lower penetration rate from 31% to 30% due to higher TMP sales.

TFSPC generated a net profit of Php1.4 billion, on account of higher interest income based on a growing loan base, partially offset by tightening net interest margins and higher ROPA losses in 2025.

Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation (SMFC)

	In Million Pesos
	2025	2024	2023

Total Equity	2,930.2	3,038.8	2,895.2
Finance Receivable	6,648.5	5,961.3	7,006.5

SMFC recorded a 5.1% decline in gross interest income, from Php1.7 billion in 2024 to Php1.6 billion in 2025, primarily due to the lower accruing accounts compared to the same period of last year. This occurred despite the 11.5% growth in finance receivables, which increased from Php6.0 billion as of December 2024 to Php6.6 billion as of December 2025. During the year, bookings grew by 36.9% to 47,429 units in 2025, compared to 34,637 units in the same period of last year.

Despite the increase in bookings, SMFC's net income declined by 52.1% from Php252.8million to Php121.0 million, mainly due to higher credit provisions and losses on ROPA.

*Based on audited financial statements

Notes:

1. Net profit margin (%) is the ratio of Net profit over Total Revenues.
2. Solvency ratio is calculated as the insurance company's net worth divided by the Risk-based Capital (RBC) requirement of the Insurance Commission based on Memorandum Circular (IMC) No. 6-2006. Net worth shall include the company's paid-up capital, contributed and contingency surplus, and unassigned surplus.

New business from life insurance expressed in Annualized Premium Equivalent increased by 20.4% from Php4.4 billion in 2024 to Php5.2 billion in 2025, arising from the strong performance in Single Premium-Unit Linked products, namely Asset Master and Asset Protect, and in Regular Premium – Endowment product, AXA Secure Future. As a result, Life unit's gross premium increased to Php32.3 billion in 2025, 18.6% higher than the previous year.

The reported premium revenue mix of life insurance shifted to 46%/54% (Single Premium vs. Regular Premium) in 2025 from 40%/60% in 2024. By distribution platform, sales agency, bancassurance, and other channels accounted for 39%, 54% and 7% of annualized premium equivalent, respectively.

Gross written premiums of the non-life insurance business grew by 24% from Php3.4 billion in 2024 to Php4.2 billion in 2025 mainly due to property and engineering.

Consolidated net income stood at Php2.5 billion in 2025, 0.3% higher than the same period of 2024. Premium Margin went up by 14%, slower than Gross Premium's growth, due to lower contributions from Protection and Health and Traditional products. Growth was further offset by higher distribution costs and unrealized losses on investments compared with gains recorded in 2024.

Infrastructure and Utilities

Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC)

	In Million Pesos
	2025	2024	2023
Core net income	27,149	23,612	19,528
Net income attributable to equity holders	29,695	27,885	20,029

Total liabilities	533,761	501,478	424,129
Total equity attributable to owners of Parent Company	268,087	250,599	233,009

MPIC's share in the consolidated operating core income increased by 13% from Php28.4 billion in 2024 to Php32.1 billion in 2025 driven by the following:

- Improved performance of power generation companies; Meralco's core net income contribution was Php22.1 billion, up 12% year-on-year;
- Higher traffic on toll roads and toll rate increases partially offset by higher interest expense; core net income contribution of Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation (MPTC) to MPIC was Php6.1 billion, 3% lower year-on-year;
- Higher net income contribution from Maynilad amounting to Php7.2 billion, 16% higher year-on-year, mainly from higher tariff implemented in January 2025;
- Higher net losses from Light Rail Manila to Php1.1 billion due to amortization of the concession asset related to the 5 new LRT stations inaugurated in November 2024

Reported net income attributable to equity holders is higher by 6% from Php27.9 billion in 2024 to Php29.7 billion in 2025. Excluding non-recurring income and expenses, MPIC reported a core net income of Php27.1 billion in 2025 from Php23.6 billion, up 15% year-on-year.

GT Capital Holdings, Inc. ("GT Capital" or the "Parent Company" or the "Company") consolidated net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company declined by 2% from Php29.31 billion in 2023 to Php28.78 billion in 2024. The decline was principally due to the 60% decline in real estate sales and interest income on real estate sales as 2023 included the recognition of significant lot sales by the Parent Company and Federal Land.

In 2024, as permitted under the accounting standards, the Parent Company finalized its purchase price allocation relating to the additional acquisition of MPIC shares in 2023. The net effect of the recognition of gain on bargain purchase and loss on dilution amounting to Php0.57 billion resulted to a restatement of the 2023 reports (see Note 8 to the Consolidated Financial Statements).

Core net income, likewise, declined by 2% from Php28.84 billion in 2023 to Php28.14 billion in 2024. Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2024 amounted to Php28.14 billion, after adding back Php0.13 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations, and deducting the Php0.77 billion share in various non-recurring gains by Metro Pacific Investments Corporation's ("MPIC"). Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2023 amounted to Php28.84 billion, after adding back Php0.16 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations, and deducting the Php0.57 billion gain on bargain purchase on additional acquisition of MPIC shares by the Parent Company and Php0.06 billion share in various non-recurring gains by MPIC.

The financial statements of Federal Land, Inc. ("Federal Land"), Toyota Motor Philippines Corporation ("TMP"), and GT Capital Auto and Mobility Holdings, Inc. ("GTCAM") are consolidated in the financial statements of the Group. The investments in other operating companies Metropolitan Bank and Trust Company ("Metrobank"), AXA Philippines Life and General Insurance Corporation ("AXA Philippines"), Toyota Financial Services Philippines

Corporation ("TFSPC"), MPIC and Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation ("SMFC") are reported through equity accounting.

Effective December 2023, Toyota Manila Bay Corporation ("TMBC") is consolidated under GTCAM pursuant to the Deed of Assignment of TMBC shares between the Parent Company and GTCAM, with the former as the transferor and the latter as the transferee. The transfer of TMBC shares from the Parent Company to GTCAM has no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

Of the eight (8) operating companies, TMP, GTCAM, Metrobank, MPIC, and SMFC, posted growth in net income, while Federal Land, TFSPC, and AXA Philippines reported declines in their respective net income.

Automotive operations comprising the sale of assembled and imported auto vehicles and spare parts grew by 8% from Php261.54 billion in 2023 to Php282.63 billion in 2024 due to the 6% increase in wholesale volume from 205,113 to 218,031 units. Retail sales volume, likewise, grew by 8% from 200,031 units in 2023 to 218,019 units in 2024.

Equity in net income of associates and joint ventures increased by 8% from Php23.50 billion in 2023 to Php25.31 billion in 2024 primarily due to significant increases in the net income of the following associates:

1. Metrobank by 14% from Php42.24 billion to Php48.14 billion due to the expansion of its loan portfolio, higher net interest margin, trading and securities gain, healthy fee income and improved asset quality;
2. MPIC from Php20.03 billion to Php27.88 billion due to higher core income contributions of its operating companies

Real estate sales and interest income from real estate sales declined by Php7.71 billion from Php12.87 billion to Php5.16 billion as 2023 included Php8.39 billion worth of property sales by the Parent Company and Federal Land to FNG.

Rent income grew by 11% from Php1.51 billion to Php1.67 billion due to Federal Land's higher retail and office space occupancy.

Interest income grew by Php0.25 billion due to higher short-term investments and higher rates.

Sale of goods and services increased by 7% or Php0.07 billion due to higher sales volume and prices in the fuel business, higher sales from food franchises and auction business. A subsidiary of Federal Land maintains a petroleum service station and is also engaged in food and restaurant business.

Commission income declined by 63% from Php0.96 billion in 2023 to Php0.35 billion in 2024 due to lower booked sales of Federal Land's joint venture projects as some projects reached full completion in 2023.

Gain on bargain purchase in 2023 pertains to the Parent Company's gain in relation to the acquisition of additional MPIC shares.

Other income declined by 18% or Php0.81 billion mostly due to the absence of tax credits utilized by TMP from its participation in the Comprehensive Automotive Resurgence Strategy (CARS) program of the government, and lower income from forfeitures, interest, and penalty charges of Federal Land.

Consolidated costs and expenses increased by 6% from Php263.46 billion in 2023 to Php278.00 billion in 2024. TMP contributed Php225.04 billion comprising cost of goods sold for manufacturing and trading activities, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. GTCAM contributed Php37.19 billion consisting of cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. Federal Land contributed Php10.87 billion consisting of cost of real estate sales, cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses, cost of rental and interest expenses. GT Capital Parent Company accounted for the balance of Php4.90 billion consisting of interest expenses and general and administrative expenses.

Cost of goods and services sold grew by 7% from Php189.35 billion to Php201.97 billion relative to the increase in auto sales.

Cost of goods manufactured and sold comprising cost of materials, labor and overhead incurred in the assembly of vehicles from TMP increased by 8% from Php39.66 billion to Php42.75 billion due to an increase in the cost of raw materials of assembled vehicles.

General and administrative expenses grew by 14% or Php2.91 billion mainly due to auto delivery and handling services, and advertising and promotional expenses relative to the increase in auto sales.

Interest expense declined by 7% from Php7.89 billion to Php7.31 billion due to settlement of short-term loans, matured bonds payable, and partial payment of long-term loans.

Cost of real estate sales decreased from Php5.40 billion to Php1.87 billion primarily due to the absence of significant lot sales by the Parent Company and Federal Land in 2024.

Provision for income tax declined by Php0.93 billion from Php6.94 billion to Php6.01 billion due to the lower taxable income of the Group in 2024.

Net income attributable to non-controlling interest rose by Php1.17 billion from Php7.56 billion to Php8.73 billion due to an increase in net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly-owned.

The major changes in GT Capital's consolidated balance sheet from December 31, 2023 to December 31, 2024 are as follows:

Consolidated assets grew by Php26.90 billion from Php447.19 billion as of December 31, 2023 to Php474.09 billion as of December 31, 2024. Total liabilities dropped by Php5.12 billion from Php199.36 billion to Php194.24 billion while total equity increased by Php32.03 billion from Php247.82 billion to Php279.85 billion.

ASSETS

Cash and cash equivalents amounted to Php25.34 billion as of December 31, 2024 consisting of cash and money market placements with less than 90-day terms.

Contract assets increased by Php0.59 billion attributable to the higher percentage of completion (POC) over the contractual right to an amount collectible from Federal Land's unit buyers.

Due from related parties doubled from Php0.13 billion to Php0.26 billion mostly coming from Federal Land's receivable from its related parties.

Prepayments and other current assets dropped by 8% from Php12.78 billion to Php11.79 billion due to lower ad valorem taxes and advances to suppliers and contractors.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income rose by Php2.40 billion from Php17.70 billion to Php20.10 billion due to unrealized marked-to-market gains on investments.

Noncurrent portion of receivables declined by Php4.96 billion due to Federal Land's collections of its long-term receivables and Parent Company's reclassification of noncurrent receivable to current.

Noncurrent portion of contract assets declined by 6% or Php0.31 billion due to reclassifications to receivables and current portion of contract assets.

Investments in associates and joint ventures grew by 8% or Php19.34 billion due to the Php25.31 billion equity share in net income, Php1.18 billion equity share in other comprehensive income, additional P3.22 billion investments, and Php0.46 billion impact of the full adoption of PFRS 15 on significant financing component, offset by Php10.83 billion dividends received.

Property and equipment rose by 19% from Php13.59 billion to Php16.14 billion mostly due to TMP's acquisition of vehicles for use in operations, increase in assets under construction and purchase of dies and jigs primarily for the new car model Tamaraw. The local production of the next generation Tamaraw is based on Toyota's International Multi-purpose Vehicle (IMV-0) platform for the Asian market.

Deferred tax assets grew by 19% from Php1.09 billion to Php1.29 billion coming from TMP's recognition of deferred tax assets on accruals and other temporary differences.

Other noncurrent assets decreased by Php0.43 billion from Php0.83 billion to Php0.40 billion due to lower rental deposits, utilities, guarantee, and construction bonds.

LIABILITIES

Accounts and other payables increased to Php49.84 billion from Php43.79 billion primarily due to the higher trade payables of TMP and Federal Land.

Contract liabilities declined by 10% or Php0.34 billion attributable to the projects with lower POC over the amount collected from Federal Land's unit buyers.

Short-term debt grew by Php8.80 billion from Php21.11 billion to Php29.91 billion mainly due to Federal Land's loan availments to refinance its long-term debt.

Current portion of long-term debt increased by 8% from Php16.11 billion to Php17.45 billion due to reclassifications from noncurrent portion offset by settlements.

Current portion of bonds payable were paid upon its maturity on August 7, 2024.

Customers' deposit grew by 50% from Php1.06 billion to Php1.59 billion with TMP and GTCAM accounting for Php0.48 billion, and Php0.05 billion, respectively.

Current portion of liabilities on purchased properties increased by Php0.65 billion due to reclassifications from noncurrent portion, offset by scheduled payment.

Due to related parties increased by 6% from Php0.42 billion to Php0.44 billion attributable to higher payables by Federal Land to its related parties.

Income tax payable increased by Php0.57 billion from Php0.57 billion to Php1.14 billion attributable to higher taxable income reported by the Group in the last quarter of 2024 compared to the last quarter of 2023.

Other current liabilities grew by 13% from Php2.15 billion to Php2.44 billion primarily due to higher output VAT payable coming from the increase in revenues.

Long-term debt net of current portion declined by 20% or Php18.66 billion mainly due to the reclassification to current portion of the Parent Company's long-term debt maturing in March 2025 and partial settlement of long-term debt of Federal Land and GTCAM group.

Liabilities on purchased properties net of current portion amounted to nil as of December 31, 2024 due to reclassification to current portion.

Deferred tax liabilities grew by 14% or Php0.61 billion mainly due to GT Capital's deferred tax liabilities on the net unrealized gain on financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

EQUITY

Unappropriated retained earnings increased by Php26.92 billion from Php134.41 billion to Php161.33 billion arising from the Php28.78 billion consolidated net income attributable to the Parent Company in 2024, and Php0.23 billion impact of the full adoption of PFRS 15 on significant financing component, net of Php2.09 billion cash dividends declared.

Other comprehensive loss of Php2.48 billion as of December 31, 2023 improved to other comprehensive income of Php1.10 billion as of December 31, 2024 primarily due to the marked-to-market gains on financial assets at FVOCI of the Group.

Non-controlling interests increased by Php1.52 billion from Php15.81 billion to Php17.33 billion arising from Php8.73 billion share in net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly-owned, offset by Php7.20 billion dividend of other shareholders of the Group.

GT Capital Holdings, Inc. ("GT Capital" or the "Parent Company" or the "Company") consolidated net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company grew by 60% from Php18.36 billion in 2022 to Php29.31 billion in 2023. The increase was principally due to the 25% growth in consolidated revenues with growth coming from automotive operations (+23%), real estate sales and interest income on real estate sales (+122%), and equity in net income of associates and joint ventures (+39%).

Core net income, likewise, grew by 82% from Php15.89 billion in 2022 to Php28.84 billion in 2023. Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2023 amounted to Php28.84 billion, after adding back Php0.16 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations, and deducting the Php0.57 billion gain on bargain purchase on additional acquisition of Metro Pacific Investments Corporation's ("MPIC") shares by the Parent Company and Php0.06 billion share in various non-recurring gains by MPIC. Core net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company in 2022 amounted to Php15.89 billion, after deducting the Php2.64 billion net non-recurring gains earned by the Group mainly from Federal Land's gain on investment in a joint venture, net of non-recurring expenses and MPIC's reversal of impairment loss upon the consolidation of one of its investments, and adding back the Php0.17 billion amortization of fair value adjustments arising from various business combinations.

The financial statements of Federal Land, Inc. ("Federal Land"), Toyota Motor Philippines Corporation ("TMP"), and GT Capital Auto and Mobility Holdings, Inc. ("GTCAM") are consolidated in the financial statements of the Group. The investments in other component companies Metropolitan Bank and Trust Company ("Metrobank"), AXA Philippines Life and General Insurance Corporation ("AXA Philippines"), Toyota Financial Services Philippines Corporation ("TFSPC"), MPIC and Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation ("SMFC") are reported through equity accounting.

Effective December 2023, Toyota Manila Bay Corporation (“TMBC”) is consolidated under GTCAM pursuant to the Deed of Assignment of TMBC shares between the Parent Company and GTCAM, with the former as the transferor and the latter as the transferee. The transfer of TMBC shares from the Parent Company to GTCAM has no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

Of the eight (8) operating companies, TMP, GTCAM, Metrobank, MPIC, TFSPC, and AXA Philippines, posted growth in net income, while Federal Land and SMFC reported decline in their respective net income.

Automotive operations comprising the sale of assembled and imported auto vehicles and spare parts grew by 23% from Php211.95 billion in 2022 to Php261.54 billion in 2023 due to the 18% increase in wholesale volume from 174,197 to 205,113 units.

Equity in net income of associates and joint ventures increased by 43% from Php16.46 billion in 2022 to Php23.50 billion in 2023 primarily due to significant increases in the net income of the following associates:

1. Metrobank by 29% from Php32.78 billion to Php42.24 billion due to the expansion of its loan portfolio, higher net interest margin, healthy fee income and improved asset quality;
2. MPIC from Php10.49 billion to Php20.03 billion due to higher core income contributions of its operating companies; and
3. TFSPC by 13% from Php1.63 billion to Php1.84 billion arising from the increase in net interest income from its steady annuity income stream, and improving asset quality.

Real estate sales and interest income from real estate sales rose by Php7.08 billion from Php5.79 billion to Php12.87 billion due to lot sales realized by the Parent Company and Federal Land from Federal Land NRE Global, Inc., the joint venture company between Federal Land and Nomura Real Estate in the second quarter, including project completion and percentage of completion from Federal Land’s existing projects.

Rent income grew by 8% from Php1.40 billion to Php1.51 billion due to higher occupancy of Federal Land’s retail operations.

Sale of goods and services increased by 19% or Php0.18 billion due to higher sales realized from food franchises.

Commission income increased by Php0.29 billion from Php0.67 billion in 2022 to Php0.96 billion in 2023 due to an increase in booked sales of Federal Land’s joint venture projects.

Interest income grew by Php0.73 billion due to higher short-term investments and higher rates.

Other income declined by 41% or Php3.07 billion mostly Federal Land’s gain on investments in 2022.

Consolidated costs and expenses increased by 19% from Php221.76 billion in 2022 to Php263.46 billion in 2023. TMP contributed Php209.01 billion comprising cost of goods sold for manufacturing and trading activities, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. GTCAM contributed Php35.08 billion consisting of cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses and interest expenses. Federal Land contributed Php12.57 billion consisting of cost of real estate sales, cost of goods and services sold, general and administrative expenses, cost of rental and interest expenses. GT Capital Parent Company accounted for the balance of Php6.80 billion consisting of interest expenses and general and administrative expenses.

Cost of goods and services sold grew by 21% from Php157.08 billion to Php189.35 billion relative to the increase in auto sales.

Cost of goods manufactured comprising cost of materials, labor and overhead incurred in the assembly of vehicles from TMP increased by 9% from Php36.37 billion to Php39.66 billion due to an increase in materials costs of assembled vehicles.

General and administrative expenses increased by 17% or Php2.98 billion mainly due to auto delivery and handling services, and advertising and promotional expenses relative to the increase in auto sales.

Interest expense increased by 10% from Php7.14 billion to Php7.89 billion due to higher lending rates in spite of lower outstanding loan balances.

Cost of real estate sales rose to Php5.40 billion from Php3.06 billion primarily due to the cost of lots sold during the year by the Parent Company and Federal Land and cost of real estate sales incurred by Federal Land on its ongoing projects.

Cost of rental grew by 9% from Php0.83 billion to Php0.91 billion due to an increase in common use service area expenses relative to higher occupancy.

Provision for income tax increased by Php5.12 billion from Php1.82 billion to Php6.94 billion due to the higher taxable income of the Group in 2023.

Net income attributable to non-controlling interest increased by Php4.19 billion from Php3.37 billion to Php7.56 billion due to an increase in net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly-owned.

The major changes in GT Capital's consolidated balance sheet from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2023 are as follows:

Consolidated assets grew by Php30.03 billion from Php417.16 billion as of December 31, 2022 to Php447.19 billion as of December 31, 2023. Total liabilities dropped by Php4.78 billion from Php204.14 billion to Php199.36 billion while total equity increased by Php34.81 billion from Php213.01 billion to Php247.82 billion.

ASSETS

Cash and cash equivalents amounted to Php16.73 billion as of December 31, 2023 consisting of money market placements with less than 90-day terms.

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss decreased by Php10.29 billion from Php11.16 billion to Php0.87 billion to fund additional investment in other operating companies.

Current portion of receivables grew by Php15.07 billion mostly trade receivables of TMP resulting from higher auto sales to its dealers and extension of credit terms.

Contract assets decreased by Php0.62 billion attributable to the reclassification from current to long-term portion of receivables during the year. Contract assets are the excess of percentage of completion (POC) over the right to an amount collectible from Federal Land's unit buyers.

Inventories grew by Php7.28 billion from Php69.40 billion to Php76.68 billion primarily due to the higher level of the inventories of TMP.

Due from related parties declined by Php0.22 billion from Php0.36 billion to Php0.13 billion coming from management fees earned by Federal Land from its joint venture entities.

Prepayments and other current assets dropped by 25% from Php17.11 billion to Php12.78 billion mainly ad valorem and excise taxes, input VAT, creditable withholding taxes, advances to contractors and suppliers, prepaid expenses and other current assets.

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income rose by Php4.35 billion from Php13.35 billion to Php17.70 billion due to marked-to-market gains on investments.

Investments in associates and joint ventures grew by 15% or Php29.05 billion mainly Federal Land's additional capital contribution to FNG and equity share in net income of associates and joint ventures.

Deferred tax assets declined by 15% from Php1.28 billion to Php1.09 billion due to a decrease in Federal Land's deferred tax assets.

Other noncurrent assets decreased by Php2.49 billion from Php3.32 billion to Php0.83 billion due to lower rental deposits, utilities, guarantee, and construction bonds.

LIABILITIES

Accounts and other payables increased to Php43.79 billion from Php36.95 billion primarily due to the higher trade payables of TMP and auto dealers.

Short-term debt grew by Php6.53 billion from Php14.58 billion to Php21.11 billion due to Php70.54 billion loan payments, offset by Php77.08 billion loan availments.

Current portion of long-term debt increased from Php7.76 billion to Php16.11 billion partly due to reclassifications from noncurrent portion.

Current portion of bonds payable decreased due to the payment of Php6.10 billion bonds upon its maturity on February 27, 2023, offset by the reclassification of Php4.00 billion bonds due on August 7, 2024.

Customers' deposit grew by 14% from Php0.93 billion to Php1.06 billion with TMP and GTCAM accounting for Php0.58 billion, and Php0.48 billion, respectively.

Due to related parties increased by Php0.25 billion from Php0.17 billion to Php0.42 billion attributable to higher payables by Federal Land to its related parties.

Income tax payable increased by 88% from Php0.30 billion to Php0.57 billion attributable to higher taxable income reported by the Group.

Dividends payable declined by Php0.22 billion from Php0.59 billion to Php0.37 billion mainly due to the redemption of the series A preferred shares of the Parent Company.

Other current liabilities increased by 42% from Php1.51 billion to Php2.15 billion primarily due to higher output VAT payable coming from the increase in revenues.

Non-current portion of long-term debt declined by 19% or Php22.51 billion mainly due to the payments made by Federal Land and long-term debt reclassification to current portion.

Pension liabilities increased by 23% from Php1.66 billion to Php2.04 billion due to the accrual of retirement expenses for the period December 31, 2023.

Non-current liabilities on purchased properties decreased by Php0.32 billion due to a reclassification to current portion and amortization of deferred financing cost.

Non-current portion of bonds payable decreased by Php3.99 billion due to its reclassification to current portion.

Deferred tax liabilities grew by 29% or Php0.99 billion mainly due to GT Capital's deferred tax liabilities on the net unrealized gain on financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

EQUITY

Unappropriated retained earnings increased by Php28.30 billion from Php106.11 billion to Php134.41 billion arising from the Php29.31 billion consolidated net income earned attributable to the Parent Company in 2023, net of Php1.01 billion cash dividends declared.

Treasury shares came from the Parent Company's redemption of all its 4,839,240 perpetual preferred shares series A (GTPPA) on October 27, 2023, at the issue price of Php1,000 per share or a total redemption price of Php4.84 billion.

Other comprehensive loss improved from Php9.28 billion as of December 31, 2022 to Php2.48 billion as of December 31, 2023 due to the marked-to-market gains on financial assets at FVOCI of the Group.

Non-controlling interest increased by Php4.54 billion from Php11.27 billion to Php15.81 billion relative to the increase in net income of subsidiaries which are not wholly-owned.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

In 2025, 2024 and 2023, GT Capital's principal source of liquidity came from the operations of its consolidated entities, cash dividends received from the investee companies, interest income received and availment of loans. A.iv Brief Description of the General Nature and Scope of the Corporation's Business and Its Subsidiaries

Item 1. Business

GT Capital Holdings, Inc. (GT Capital or the Company or the Parent Company or the Group) was incorporated in the Republic of the Philippines on July 26, 2007. The Company's registered office address and principal place of business is at 43/F GT Tower International, 6813 Ayala Avenue corner H. V. Dela Costa St., Makati City, Metro Manila, Philippines. GT Capital is a listed company, of which 56.17% of common shares is owned by Grand Titan Capital Holdings, Inc. (Grand Titan) and the directors and senior officers of GT Capital, while the balance of 43.83% is publicly owned as of December 31, 2025.

GT Capital is a major Philippine conglomerate with interests in market-leading businesses across banking, automotive assembly, importation, distribution, dealership and financing, property development, life and non-life insurance, and infrastructure and utilities. GT Capital is the primary vehicle for the holding and management of the diversified business interests of the Ty family in the Philippines. GT Capital's business management, investment decisions and future business development are and will be firmly rooted in its corporate values of integrity, competence, respect, entrepreneurial spirit and commitment to value creation.

As a testament to its market position, GT Capital was listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) in April 2012, included in the PSE Index in September 2013, in the Financial Times Stock Exchange (FTSE) All-World Index in March 2014, and in the Morgan Stanley Capital International (MSCI) Philippine Index in May 2015.

GT Capital's portfolio of businesses is well-positioned to benefit from broad-based growth in the Philippine economy and domestic consumption in particular. The portfolio as of December 31, 2025 comprises directly-held interests in the following GT Capital component companies:

- Automotive assembly, importation, distribution, dealership and financing – GT Capital primarily conducts its automotive business through its 51% interest in Toyota Motor Philippines Corporation (TMP), the country's largest automotive company. TMP assembles, imports, and distributes Toyota vehicles, and sells parts and accessories locally and abroad. TMP also distributes Lexus vehicle in the Philippines.

TMP owns Toyota Makati (including the Toyota Bicutan branch), 55% of Toyota San Fernando (with branches in Plaridel and Tarlac), and 75% of Lexus Manila. It also holds 100% of Toyota Motor Philippines Logistics, Inc. (TLI), which provides logistics and vehicle distribution services, and of Toyota Mobility Solutions Philippines Inc. (TMSPH), which delivers fleet and mobility-related solutions.

GT Capital conducts its automotive dealership business through its wholly-owned subsidiary, GT Capital Auto and Mobility Holdings, Inc. (GTCAM). GTCAM, formerly GT Capital Auto Dealership Holdings, Inc. (GTCAD), holds a 58.1% interest in Toyota Manila Bay Corp. (TMBC), 55.0% interest in Toyota Subic, Inc. (TSB) and 60.0% interest in Toyota Santa Rosa Laguna, Inc. (TSR). GTCAM also has businesses in the pre-owned vehicle sector through its 40% effective ownership interest in JBA Philippines, Inc. and 46.67% effective ownership interest in Premium Warranty Services Philippines, Inc.

On October 11, 2023, GT Capital and GTCAM signed a Deed of Assignment of Shares of Stocks (DOAS), wherein, GT Capital offered to subscribe to 1,715,408,377 common voting shares of GTCAM with a par value of Php1.00 per share, and to transfer to GTCAM, in payment of such subscription, its investments in the common shares of TMBC totaling 386,353,238 common shares, with a total book value of Php1,715,408,377. The effective date of the DOAS was upon SEC's approval of GTCAM's increase in authorized capital stock, which was approved by the SEC in December 2023. As a result, GTCAM took control of TMBC in December 2023, and accordingly, all assets and liabilities of TMBC were consolidated under GTCAM effective December 2023. Prior to this, GT Capital directly held its 58.1% ownership interest in TMBC.

TMBC, TSR, and TSB exclusively distribute Toyota motor vehicles in the Luzon Island, primarily serving the areas of Metro Manila, Cavite, Laguna, and the Subic Bay Freeport Zone in Zambales. They also offer genuine Toyota brand motor vehicle parts and accessories, and provide after-sales services to Toyota vehicles.

GT Capital also provides financing for the acquisition of Toyota motor vehicles through its 40.00% interest in Toyota Financial Services Philippines Corporation (TFSPH). TFSPH offers retail loans, finance lease and full-service operating lease to its individual and corporate clients for the acquisition of brand-new and/or certified pre-owned Toyota vehicles. In October 19, 2021, TFSPH launched myTOYOTA Wallet, a digital payment app that brings together a range of payment options in a single platform connected to the entire Toyota ecosystem.

TFSPP established an insurance agency, Toyota Insurance Services Philippines Corporation (TISPP or Subsidiary Company), a wholly owned subsidiary. TISPP was registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on September 10, 2025, with capitalization of P10.00 million. The subsidiary company commenced its operation in December 2025.

- Banking – GT Capital conducts banking services through its 39.84% interest in Metropolitan Bank & Trust company (“MBT” or “Metrobank”). MBT is a universal bank that provides, through itself and other members of the MBT Group, a full range of banking and other financial products and services including corporate, commercial and consumer banking products and services as well as credit card, investment banking and trust services. Metrobank has been listed on the Philippine Stock Exchange since 1981. As of December 31, 2025, the MBT Group had a total of over 967 branches in the Philippines, and over 2,242 automated teller machines (ATMs).
- Property development – GT Capital engages in property development business through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Federal Land, Inc. (“Federal Land”). Federal Land primarily focuses on the development of high-rise, vertical residential condominium projects, as well as on master-planned communities that offer residential, retail, office and commercial space. It caters mainly to the upper mid-end market segment with projects in key, strategic urban communities.
- Life and Non-Life Insurance – GT Capital conducts its life and non-life insurance business through its 25.3% interest in AXA Philippines Life and General Insurance Corporation (Formerly Philippine AXA Life Insurance Corporation), which offers personal and group insurance products in the country, including investment-linked insurance products. AXA Philippines fully absorbed its subsidiary, Charter Ping An Insurance Corporation (Charter Ping An or CPAIC), with the former being the surviving entity as approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on December 28, 2022. With the merger, AXA Philippines is now a provider of non-life insurance products that include fire/property, marine, motor car, personal accident, other casualty, and engineering insurance, among others. AXA Philippines distributes its products through a multi-channel distribution network comprised of agents, bancassurance (through MBT and PSBank branches), and corporate solutions.
- Infrastructure and Utilities – GT Capital, through its 19.62% stake in Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC), the Philippines’ largest infrastructure conglomerate, has exposure in high-growth businesses such as toll roads, water, power, railways, health, fuel storage, real estate, food, and agriculture. Among MPIC’s portfolio is Manila Electric Company (MERALCO), the country’s largest power distribution utility; Maynilad Water Services, Inc., which manages Metro Manila’s widest water distribution network; and Metro Pacific Tollways Corporation, operator of the country’s largest toll road network.
- Motorcycle Financing – GT Capital owns a 20.0% stake in Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation (SMFC), which offers end-user financing for Japanese motorcycle brands. SMFC is a joint venture among GT Capital, PSBank, and Sumitomo Corporation of Japan. Sumisho provides a total financing package that hopes to deliver simple, convenient and hassle-free motorcycle ownership for its clients.

A.ix. Corporate Governance

The Corporation adopted its Manual on Corporate Governance (the -Governance Manual) on December 2, 2011. It was last amended on November 10, 2023. The policy of corporate governance is based on the Governance Manual.

The Governance Manual lays down the principles of good corporate governance in the entire organization. The Governance Manual provides that it is the Board's responsibility to initiate compliance with the principles of good corporate governance, to foster long-term success and to secure the Corporation's sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its fiduciary responsibility.

The Corporation's By-laws and Governance Manual provide that the Board shall have at least three (3) independent directors or such number as to constitute at least one-third (1/3) of the members of the board, whichever is higher. The Corporation espouses the definition of independence pursuant to the Securities Regulation Code. The Corporation considers as an independent director one who, except for his director's fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as an independent director of GT Capital.

The Governance Manual embodies the Corporation's policies on disclosure and transparency, and mandates the conduct of communication and training programs on corporate governance. The Governance Manual further provides for the rights of all shareholders and the protection of the interests of minority stockholders. Commission of any violation of the Governance Manual is punishable by a penalty ranging from reprimand to dismissal, depending on the frequency of commission as well as the gravity thereof.

The Board has constituted six (6) committees to effectively oversee the Corporation's operations: (i) the Executive Committee (ii) the Audit Committee; (iii) the Nominations Committee; (iv) the Compensation Committee; (v) the Corporate Governance Committee and Related Party Transactions Committee; and (vi) the Risk and Sustainability Oversight Committee. There have been no deviations from the Corporation's Governance Manual as of this date.

Appraisals and Performance Reports

The Board, Committee, and Individual Director's Self-Assessment forms were adopted as a tool for the Corporation to evaluate the performance of its Board, Committees, and individual directors and to assess the efficiency of its processes. These enable the Board and Management to identify areas for improvement and determine the value and contribution of the Board and each director towards the growth and improvement of the Corporation. The Self-Assessment forms are distributed to the members of the Board and tabulated by the Board Secretariat so that results may be reported to and acted upon by the Board, Management, and/or appropriate committee, as necessary.

The criteria for the Self-Assessment of the Board, the Committees, and individual directors are as follows:

Board Self-Assessment	Director Self-Assessment	Committee Self-Assessment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enablers of Board Performance • Board Function • Board Practices • Board Process • Board Dynamics • Executive Performance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundational • Board Citizenship • Directors' Responsibilities • Board Meetings • Overall Performance 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Charter • Composition and Quality • Meetings • Duties and Responsibilities • Performance as a Member

Questions may be answered on a scale ranging from “strongly disagree” to “strongly agree”, and qualitative questions are asked to solicit comments and suggestions on recommended areas of focus and on how to improve the Corporation’s performance.

Every three (3) years, the Corporation endeavors, as a matter of policy, to engage an independent external facilitator who will conduct and oversee the assessment process. When the process is overseen by an independent external facilitator, interviews of select directors of the Corporation may be conducted to enable such external facilitator to ask additional questions in relation to the directors’ answers to the Self-assessment forms.

A.x Undertaking to provide without charge a copy of the Corporation’s Annual Report

The Corporation will provide without charge a copy of the Corporation’s Annual Report on SEC Form 17-A to its stockholders upon receipt of a written request addressed to Mr. George S. Uy-Tioco, Jr., Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer at 43rd Floor, GT Tower International, Ayala Avenue corner H.V. de la Costa St., 1227 Makati City, Metro Manila, Philippines.

1. Opening Announcements and Call to Order – Mr. Jose B. Crisol, Jr., Head of Investor Relations, Strategic Planning and Corporate Communication (“IRSPCC”) Department of GT Capital Holdings, Inc. (“GT Capital” or the “Corporation”), announced that the 2025 Annual Stockholders’ Meeting (“ASM” or the “Meeting”) of GT Capital would begin with an Invocation led by Chief Financial Officer (“CFO”), Mr. George S. Uy-Tioco, Jr., followed by the playing of the Philippine National Anthem.

After the invocation and the Philippine National Anthem, Mr. Crisol, Jr. stated that similar to the previous years, the Corporation’s ASM was conducted virtually, as allowed by the Revised Corporation Code of the Philippines and the regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”).

Mr. Crisol, Jr. then announced the rules to ensure the orderly conduct of the virtual Meeting: (1) With the exception of the participants with speaking parts, all microphones would be muted to ensure better sound clarity; (2) before the end of the meeting, questions submitted by stockholders in advance via e-mail will be addressed first, Thereafter, stockholders in attendance may ask their questions via the Zoom Q&A box or by using the Raise Hand function; and (3) the Meeting would be recorded.

After the announcements, Chairman Francisco C. Sebastian called the meeting to order. Corporate Secretary Antonio V. Viray recorded the minutes.

2. Proof of Notice and Quorum – Upon query of the Chairman, the Corporate Secretary reported that the required notices and Definitive Information Statement were disclosed through the Philippine Stock Exchange and posted on GT Capital's website.

The Corporate Secretary reported that of the 389,584,587 total number of shares outstanding and entitled to vote in the Meeting, 337,894,785 shares or 86.73% comprising more than a majority of the outstanding capital stock of GT Capital were present or duly represented at the meeting of stockholders. There was, therefore, a quorum for the purpose of transacting business in the Agenda.

3. Voting Procedures – Before proceeding to the other items on the agenda, the Chairman requested the Corporate Secretary to discuss the rules for registration, participation, and voting in the Meeting.

The Corporate Secretary explained that the rules for registration, participation in the Meeting and voting were set forth in GT Capital's Notice of Meeting, which was made available to the stockholders through distribution and posting on GT Capital's website.

Stockholders who wished to join the Meeting notified the Corporation via e-mail of their intention to do so, and provided the appropriate documentation required for verification. After verification, the Corporation registered the qualified stockholders and sent them a confirmation email, which contained a unique link to access this virtual meeting.

The Corporation earlier received proxies from stockholders of record, detailing their voting instructions on each agenda item, through which a preliminary tally of votes was conducted prior to the Meeting. Stockholders who attended the Meeting were allowed to cast their votes via poll, which was opened and remained open until the end of the Meeting.¹

The Corporate Secretary further stated that there were four (4) agenda items voted or to be voted on by stockholders, to be decided by a majority vote of stockholders. For the election of directors, a stockholder was allowed to cast all his stockholdings for each director or cumulate his shares as allowed by the Revised Corporation Code. Other remaining matters must be approved by majority vote of the stockholders present in person or by proxy in the annual stockholders' meeting, a quorum being present. As each agenda item is discussed, the resolution for the adoption of the stockholders would be presented on the screen, and the preliminary tally of votes would be reported by the Corporate Secretary. Final voting results, including votes sent by proxy and results of the polls held during the Meeting, would be tallied and form part of the minutes of the Meeting.

Finally, in keeping with the best governance practices recommended by the ASEAN Corporate Governance Scorecard, the minutes of the Meeting would be posted on GT Capital's website on the working day following the Meeting.

4. Approval of Minutes of Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on May 8, 2024 – The Chairman announced the next item, which was the approval of the Minutes of the ASM held on May 8, 2024.

¹ The voting was by poll and the votes of stockholders who attended virtually or by proxy were received and tabulated by the Corporation's Stock Transfer Agent, MBTC-Trust Banking Group, and validated by the external auditor, SyCip Gorres Velayo & Company ("SGV").

As the proposed resolution was flashed on the screen, the Corporate Secretary reported the preliminary tally of votes. The final tally showed that out of a total of 337,894,785 shares of the Corporation entitled to vote which were present or duly represented at the meeting, 335,321,273 shares or 99.24% were cast in favor of the resolution for the approval of the Minutes of the previous ASM, none voted against the resolution, and none abstained. The following resolution for the approval of the Minutes of the ASM held on May 8, 2024 was, therefore, approved by the required majority vote:

“RESOLVED, that the Minutes of the Annual Stockholders' Meeting of GT Capital Holdings, Inc. held on May 8, 2024 are hereby approved.”

5. President's Report – The Chairman requested President Carmelo Maria Luza Bautista to render his Annual Report for the year 2024. The President then proceeded to render his Report through a pre-recorded audio-visual presentation.
6. Ratification of Corporate Acts – The Chairman announced the next item which was the approval of all corporate acts during the preceding year.

As the proposed resolution was flashed on the screen, the Corporate Secretary reported the preliminary tally of votes. The final tally showed that out of a total of 337,894,785 shares of the Corporation entitled to vote which were present or duly represented at the Meeting, 334,893,698 shares or 99.11% of shares were cast in favor of the resolution for the ratification of corporate acts, 1,829 shares voted against the resolution, and 425,746 shares or 0.13% abstained. The following resolution for the ratification of corporate acts was, therefore, approved by the required majority vote:

“RESOLVED, that all acts, transactions and resolutions, including related party transactions, approved by the Corporation's Board of Directors, Committees, and Management from the date of the 2024 Annual Stockholders' Meeting on May 8, 2024 until the date of this meeting be hereby ratified and confirmed.”

7. Election of Directors – The Chairman announced the next item, which was the Election of the Members of the Board of Directors to serve for the year 2025-2026. He then requested Independent Director and Member of the Nominations Committee, Mr. Rene J. Buenaventura, to explain the nomination procedure in behalf of the Nominations Committee.

Mr. Buenaventura stated that 11 directors may be voted in the election, pursuant to the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation. Mr. Buenaventura then explained that in compliance with the regulatory requirements of the SEC and as required under the Corporation's Manual on Corporate Governance, the Nominations Committee, with Independent Director Mr. Renato C. Valencia as Chairman and Independent Directors Mr. Rene J. Buenaventura and Mr. Gil B. Genio as members, reviewed and evaluated the qualifications of all persons nominated for election to the Board of Directors and certified that, based on the Corporation's records and relevant information made available to the Nominations Committee, the nominees possessed all of the qualifications and none of the disqualifications under existing laws, rules, and regulations. Mr. Buenaventura presented the Final List of Candidates as follows:

1. Mr. Francisco C. Sebastian
2. Mr. Alfred Vy Ty
3. Mr. Arthur Vy Ty
4. Mr. Carmelo Maria Luza Bautista
5. Mr. Peter B. Favila
6. Mr. Rene J. Buenaventura
7. Mr. Gil B. Genio
8. Ms. Consuelo D. Garcia
9. Mr. Carlos G. Dominguez III
10. Dr. David Go
11. Atty. Regis V. Puno

Mr. Buenaventura further informed the stockholders that five (5) of the eleven (11) nominees for directors were nominated as independent directors, namely: Mr. Peter B. Favila, Mr. Gil B. Genio, Ms. Consuelo D. Garcia, Mr. Carlos G. Dominguez III, and Mr. Rene J. Buenaventura.

The Corporate Secretary then reported that each of the eleven (11) nominees received at least 97.29% of the votes cast. There being no other nominees to the Board of Directors, the Corporate Secretary announced the names of those elected to serve as Members of the Board of Directors for the year 2025-2026. The final tally of votes is as follows:

DIRECTOR	FOR	AGAINST	ABSTAIN
Francisco C. Sebastian	329,521,435	3,186,211	2,613,627
Alfred Vy Ty	330,620,780	3,180,621	1,519,872

The above-named candidates were duly elected Members of the Board of Directors for 2025-2026.

The Chairman thanked the stockholders for their continued trust and confidence to the Board, and stated that the Board looks forward to the valuable insights and active participation of each director this ensuing year.

8. Re-Appointment of External Auditor – The Chairman stated that the next agenda item was the appointment of the External Auditor, and requested the Chairman of the Audit Committee, Mr. Genio, to explain the procedure for the appointment of the External Auditor. Mr. Genio stated that the appointment of the Corporation's External Auditor is made pursuant to the recommendation of the Controller and with the conformity of the Audit Committee. For the year 2025, SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. has been recommended for re-appointment, subject to the approval of the Corporation's stockholders representing majority of the outstanding capital stock.

As the proposed resolution was flashed on the screen, the Corporate Secretary reported the preliminary tally of votes. The final tally showed that out of a total of 337,894,785 shares of the Corporation entitled to vote which were present or duly represented at the Meeting, 334,793,301 shares or 99.08% voted in favor of the re-appointment of SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. as GT Capital's external auditor for the year 2025; 527,972 shares or 0.14% voted against the same; and none abstained. The following resolution for the ratification of corporate acts was, therefore, approved by the required majority vote:

"RESOLVED, that SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. be appointed as External Auditor of GT Capital Holdings, Inc. for the year 2025."

9. Q&A and Adjournment – There being no matters to discuss, the Chairman opened the floor for any questions from shareholders.

Mr. Crisol, Jr. read the first question addressed to the President, as follows: "How is Toyota Motor Philippines responding to the aggressive entry of Chinese car brands in the Philippine automotive market, especially BYD?"

The President responded by acknowledging BYD's presence and electric vehicle ("EV") penetration. He also stated that Toyota believes in a multi-pathway approach, offering consumers a wider range of vehicle options, including hybrid and fully electric. He emphasized that success in this sector requires more than a single model, highlighting the importance of a cohesive dealership network, dedicated financing (Toyota Financial), insurance options, and parts service availability. He concluded that this comprehensive ecosystem has contributed to Toyota's 23-year Triple Crown Award.

Mr. Crisol Jr. read another question during the meeting: "How much cash does GT Capital have at the parent level as of end-2024? How does the company intend to use it?"

In response, the President reported a strong 2024, ending with a Php13 Billion cash position due to the increased payout of GT Capital's subsidiaries, specifically Metrobank, Toyota, and Metro Pacific, resulting in record cash dividends. He stated that GT Capital's priority has been debt service, with approximately Php29 Billion in debt paid down since 2023, in order to avoid high refinancing costs and align the debt-to-equity ratio with conglomerate peers (0.4-0.5x). Funds were also allocated for Capital Expenditures related to subsidiary requirements. In addition, the President highlighted the increased cash dividend payouts, where GT Capital doubled the regular dividend from Php3.00 to Php6.00 with an additional Php2.00 special dividend this year. Finally, the President said that GT Capital plans to maintain a minimum cash position to capitalize on potential new investment opportunities.

There being no further questions, Mr. Crisol turned over the floor to the Chairman for his closing remarks:

"Thank you, Mr. Crisol. In closing, we have a lot to be grateful for the past 12 years since GT Capital became a public company.

In 2012, when we conducted the IPO, our income was Php6.6 Billion, and our total assets at Php137 Billion. Fast forward to 2024, we've more than tripled net income to Php28.8 Billion, while our total assets grew by 250% to Php474 Billion. Closer to the hearts of our loyal stockholders, on a per share basis, our earnings is Php133 per share in 2024, from just 50 pesos during our IPO while book value per share stood at Php1,186 per share compared to 400 pesos in 2012.

That is half of the story, the good story, to be precise. Just 8 years post IPO, the world got hit by COVID-19 and GT Capital was not spared. Our net income in 2020 declined from Php20 Billion to just Php5.9 Billion. Your company has demonstrated resilience through adversity, and more significantly, the ability to emerge even stronger as our 2024 results demonstrate.

Yes, GT Capital stands tall, but it is only a dwarf that stands on the shoulders of our two giants, our youngish and emergent taipans. Not one, but two. First, let me acknowledge the outstanding leadership of Mr Arthur Ty. Under his stewardship, Metrobank has not only achieved impressive financial results, but has also been widely acknowledged as the strongest bank in the Philippines. His vision has guided Metrobank to consistently deliver stellar performance in both profitability and financial strength. Of course at GT Capital we are very happy to see our investment in Metrobank yield a return on equity of 13%, plus special cash dividends for the third consecutive year, while maintaining, I have to quickly add, and as the President said, a fortress balance sheet.

Equally, I must highlight the achievements of Mr Alfred Ty at Toyota Motor Philippines. Alfred has been instrumental in driving, forgive the pun, the motorization of the Philippine economy. Under his leadership, Toyota has not only maintained its industry dominance but has also elevated the Lexus brand to new heights, making it the choice among affluent Filipinos. Stand aside, Merc lovers, and Bimmer loyalists, it's Lexus time. Toyota Philippines today is a growing pillar of growth for GT Capital, adapting to changing market preferences and setting benchmarks for innovation and customer satisfaction. We can't complain too about its not only consistent but growing cash dividends.

Beyond banking and automotive, our growth initiatives are gaining momentum. Federal Land has been injected a new adrenaline—a One Billion US Dollar partnership with one of the most distinguished real estate companies in Japan,

Nomura Real Estate. Two projects have been successfully launched last year. It is early days to be sure, but the entry of Federal Land in horizontal development in Cavite, and its foray into retail, with the now very popular Mitsukoshi brand in Bonifacio Global City, not to mention the iconic Grand Hyatt, are a testament to our long term vision and ambition to grow and diversify over time.

Watch out too for Metro Pacific. Being delisted, investors can now access this exciting infrastructure portfolio that includes household names like Meralco, Tollways and Maynilad through your investment in GT Capital. From delisting, income has grown upwards of 40% with increasing cash dividends.

To be realistic though, GT Capital's organic growth in the foreseeable future will rest on our twin towers: Metrobank and Toyota which comprise our largest capital allocation and which are, thanks be to God, growing quite fast and giving us good returns and cash flows through dividends. It will take a while for our other investments to make a meaningful impact, but the seeds have been sown and hey, we just turned thirteen years old!

The GT Capital story will not be complete without mentioning our balance sheet.

Thanks to the regular and increasing cash dividends, while our equity base has grown from Php55 to 255 Billion, our debt level has been going the other way. From a high of 95 billion, I think we are down to 66 billion. This year alone, we hope to pay off maturing debts of Php13 Billion without refinancing, only from internal generation, and hopefully end the year even with 15 billion in cash. In short, we are building our cash position while creating room for our borrowing capacity. While this gives us flexibility and resilience, we are also acutely aware that excess capital is not just a privilege but a responsibility. Many ask, if not speculate, how we will deploy this capital. Our answer is: very carefully (and you can read that as conservatively), and with a long term view.

There are many options which are under study and development, but given where the world is today, the heightened risks, increased volatilities and the abundant uncertainties, we hope our stockholders will understand, and appreciate, our company's low leverage, excess capital and liquid position.

We did declare special cash dividends for the second year in a row, and as we actualize our "excess capital" position so to speak during the year, we will explore capital deployment including new investments. They are under study, I will emphasize. We do accept that our growing capital is responsibility and its proper deployment an opportunity to contribute to nation building. At the same time, its prudent use is a serious obligation to our loyal stockholders.

On our 13th year, as GT Capital enters its teenage life, we are not only self-aware of our growing financial strength and increasing investment appetite, but also our need for corporate and organizational maturity which we will pursue with prudence and vigor.

We are very grateful to the officers and staff of all our component companies, large and small, for delivering a great year for GT Capital. We thank our faithful stockholders for their trust and confidence over the years and we hope you will continue to join us in our journey.

On that hopeful note, the Annual Stockholders' Meeting of GT Capital Holdings Inc. is hereby adjourned.

Thanks be to God, and thank you everyone."

Thereafter, the meeting was adjourned at 2:46 P.M.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of GT Capital Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the consolidated statements of income, consolidated statements of comprehensive income, consolidated statements of changes in equity and consolidated statements of cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2025 in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) Accounting Standards.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Company in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (the Code of Ethics), as applicable to the audits of the financial statements of public interest entities, together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to the audits of financial statements of public interest entities in the Philippines, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matter

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. For each matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report, including in relation to these matters. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matters below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Accounting for Investments in Significant Associates

The Group has investments in Metropolitan Bank & Trust Company (MBTC) and Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC) that are both accounted for under the equity method. The application of the equity method of accounting over these investments, particularly the determination of the Group's share in the net income of these associates and the assessment for impairment of these investments, is a key audit matter because the Group's equity in the net earnings of these associates contributed ₱27.70 billion, or 64.29% of the Group's consolidated net income in 2025, and the Group's investments in these associates accounted for 64.14% and 44.44% of the consolidated total noncurrent assets and consolidated total assets, respectively, of the Group as of December 31, 2025.

MBTC's net income is significantly affected by its application of the expected credit loss (ECL) model in calculating the allowance for credit losses for its loans and receivables and assessment of the recoverability of goodwill.

MBTC's application of the ECL model is significant to our audit as it involves the exercise of significant management judgment. Key areas of judgment include: segmenting MBTC's credit risk exposures; determining the method to estimate ECL; defining default; identifying exposures with significant deterioration in credit quality; determining assumptions to be used in the ECL model such as the counterparty credit risk rating, the expected life of the financial asset, expected recoveries from defaulted accounts and the impact of any financial support and credit enhancements extended by any party; and forward-looking information.

For the recoverability of goodwill, which is substantially attributable to MBTC's investment in a subsidiary, MBTC performed the impairment testing using the cash generating unit's (CGU's) fair value less costs to sell (FVLCTS). The annual impairment test is significant to our audit because the determination of the CGU's FVLCTS requires significant judgment and is based on assumptions which are subject to a higher level of estimation uncertainty. The CGU's assets include significant investments in unquoted equity shares with their fair values determined using European Embedded Value (EEV) method and adjusted net asset valuation (NAV) method.

MPIC's net income is significantly affected by its assessment of the recoverability of its goodwill, service concession assets (SCAs) not yet available for use and the amortization of SCAs using the units-of-production (UOP) method.

MPIC has goodwill and SCAs not yet available for use, which are required to be tested for impairment at least annually. These are important to our audit because the impairment assessments of goodwill and SCAs not available for use involves significant management judgment and estimates. Moreover, the SCAs related to the toll roads, water and rail concession agreements of MPIC are being amortized using the UOP method. The UOP amortization method involves significant management judgment and estimates, particularly in determining the total expected traffic volume, the total estimated volume of billable water, and the total estimated rail ridership over the remaining periods of the concession agreements.

Moreover, the Group assesses the impairment of its investments in associates and joint ventures whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of the investments may not be recoverable. As of December 31, 2025, the fair value of the Group's investment in MBTC based on the current market capitalization, and the book value of the Group's investment in MPIC based on the investee's net assets, have declined compared to the respective carrying value of these investments, which are considered as impairment indicators. The assessment of the recoverable amount of the investments in MBTC and MPIC requires significant judgment and involves estimation and assumptions about the revenue growth rate, terminal growth rate, and discount rate.

The relevant disclosures related to the Group's investments in associates are provided in Note 8 to the consolidated financial statements.

Audit Response

For MBTC's application of the ECL model, we obtained an understanding of the Board-approved methodologies and models used for the different credit exposures and assessed whether these considered the requirements of PFRS 9, Financial Instruments, to reflect an unbiased and probability-weighted outcome, and to consider the time value of money and the best available forward-looking information.

We (a) assessed MBTC's segmentation of its credit risk exposures based on homogeneity of credit risk characteristics; (b) tested the definition of default and significant increase in credit risk criteria against historical analysis of accounts, credit risk management policies and practices in place; (c) tested MBTC's application of its internal credit risk rating system by reviewing the ratings of sample credit exposures; (d) assessed whether expected life is different from the contractual life by testing the maturity dates reflected in MBTC's records and considering management's assumptions regarding future collections, advances, extensions, renewals and modifications; (e) tested loss given default by inspecting historical recoveries and related costs, write-offs and collateral valuations, and the effects of any financial support and credit enhancements provided by any party; (f) tested exposure at default considering outstanding commitments and repayment scheme; (g) evaluated the forward-looking information used for overlay through statistical tests and corroboration using publicly available information and our understanding of MBTC's lending portfolios and broader industry knowledge, and (h) tested the effective interest rate used in discounting the expected loss.

Further, we checked the data used in the ECL models from source system reports to the data warehouse and from the data warehouse to the loss allowance analysis/models and financial reporting systems. To the extent that the loss allowance analysis is based on credit exposures that have been disaggregated into subsets of loans and receivables with similar risk characteristics, we traced or re-performed the disaggregation from source systems to the loss allowance analysis.

We recalculated ECL provisions on a sample basis. We involved our internal specialists in the performance of the above procedures.

For MBTC's assessment of the recoverability of goodwill, we involved our internal specialists in obtaining an understanding of MBTC's impairment assessment process including methodology and assumptions used in the assessment and in evaluating the assumptions and methodology in determining the FVLCTS of the CGU, in particular those relating to the use of European Embedded Value (EEV) method and adjusted NAV method in the valuation of the unquoted equity shares. We tested the fair value of the other assets and liabilities by referring to the quoted prices of listed equity and debt instruments, agreeing the appraised values of real estate properties to the appraisal reports and testing the reasonableness of the appraised values against comparable properties using market approach, comparing the future cash flows of unquoted debt instruments to the related contracts, and comparing the discount rates used against prevailing interest rates for similar instruments. We also reperformed the calculation of the FVLCTS.

For MPIC's impairment testing of goodwill and SCAs not yet available for use, we involved our internal specialist in evaluating the methodologies and the assumptions used in the determination of the recoverable amounts of the CGUs. These assumptions include the expected volume of traffic for the toll roads, ridership for the rail, growth rates, discount rates and the assigned probabilities to various scenarios. We also compared the key assumptions such as traffic volume, rail ridership against historical data and against available studies by independent parties that were commissioned by the respective subsidiaries. In cases where volume was determined by management specialists, we obtained the reports of the management specialists and gained an understanding of the methodology and the basis of computing the forecasted volume. We tested the weighted average cost of capital (WACC) used in the impairment test by comparing it with WACC of other comparable companies in the region. We obtained an understanding and evaluated the bases of probabilities assigned to each scenario.

For MPIC's amortization of SCAs using the UOP method, we obtained the report of management's specialists and gained an understanding of the methodology and the basis of computing the forecasted traffic volume, billable water and rail ridership. We evaluated the competence, capabilities, and objectivity of management's specialists who estimated the forecasted volumes by considering their qualifications, experience and reporting responsibilities. Furthermore, we compared the traffic volume, billable water volume, and rail ridership during the year against the historical data generated from the toll collection system for tollways, from the billing system for water and from the automated fair collection system for rail. We recalculated the amortization expense for the year and the SCAs as of year-end based on the established traffic volume, billable water volume and rail ridership.

For the Group's recoverability of investment in associates, we involved our internal specialists in evaluating the methodology used by management and in testing the reasonableness of the discount rate. For the investment in MBTC, we compared the revenue and terminal growth rates against the MBTC's historical growth rates and to available industry, economic and financial data. For the investment in MPIC, we reviewed management's calculation of the recoverable amount using the sum-of-the-parts approach, taking into consideration the quoted market prices of the listed components and the net asset values of MPIC's component businesses. For both investments in MBTC and MPIC, we also tested whether the discount rate used represents current market assessment of risks associated with the investments.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the SEC Form 20-IS (Definitive Information Statement), SEC Form 17-A and Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2025, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The SEC Form 20-IS (Definitive Information Statement), SEC Form 17-A and the Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2025 are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audits of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audits, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with PFRS Accounting Standards and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Janet A. Paraiso.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Corporate Information

GT Capital Holdings, Inc. (GT Capital or the Parent Company) was organized and registered with the Philippine Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) on July 26, 2007. The primary purpose of the Parent Company is to (i) invest in, purchase, or otherwise acquire and own, hold, use, sell, assign, transfer, lease, mortgage, exchange, develop or otherwise dispose of real property of every kind and description, including shares of stocks, bonds, debentures, notes, evidences of indebtedness, and other securities or obligations of any corporation or corporations, associations, domestic or foreign, and to possess and exercise in respect thereof all the rights, powers and privileges of ownership, including all voting powers of any stock so owned, and to secure and guarantee obligations of, and act as surety for its subsidiaries and affiliates and (ii) act as commission merchant, commercial agent or factor for, or assist in any legal manner, financially or otherwise, its subsidiaries, affiliates, associates or investee companies.

The common shares of the Parent Company were listed beginning April 20, 2012 and have since been traded in the Philippine Stock Exchange, Inc. (PSE).

Group Activities

The Parent Company, Federal Land, Inc. (Federal Land) and Subsidiaries (Federal Land Group), Toyota Motor Philippines Corporation (Toyota or TMPC) and Subsidiaries (Toyota Group), and GT Capital Auto and Mobility Holdings, Inc. (GTCAM) and Subsidiaries (GTCAM Group) are collectively referred herein as the “Group”. The Parent Company, which is the ultimate parent of the Group, is the holding company of the Federal Land Group (real estate business), Toyota Group (automotive business), and GTCAM Group (automotive and mobility business), and is engaged in investing, purchasing and holding shares of stock, notes and other securities and obligations, as well as buying, selling, and leasing of real estate properties.

The principal business interests of the Federal Land Group are real estate development and leasing and selling properties and acting as a marketing agent for and in behalf of any real estate development company or companies. The Federal Land Group is also engaged in the business of trading of goods such as petroleum, non-fuel products on wholesale or retail basis, maintaining a petroleum service station and food and restaurant service.

Toyota Group is engaged in the assembly, manufacture, importation, sale and distribution of all kinds of motor vehicles including vehicle parts, accessories and instruments.

GTCAM Group is engaged in automotive and mobility businesses, and in investing, purchasing and holding shares of stock, notes and other securities and obligations, as well as buying, selling, and leasing of real estate properties.

The Parent Company also has significant shareholdings in Metropolitan Bank & Trust Company (MBTC or Metrobank), Metro Pacific Investments Corporation (MPIC), AXA Philippines Life and General Insurance Corporation (AXA Philippines or Phil AXA), Toyota Financial Services Philippines Corporation (TFSPC) and Sumisho Motor Finance Corporation (SMFC).

The registered office address of the Parent Company is at the 43rd Floor, GT Tower International, Ayala Avenue corner H.V. Dela Costa Street, 1227 Makati City.

2. Summary of Material Accounting Policies

Basis of Preparation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared using the historical cost basis except for financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL), financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI), and derivative financial instruments that have been measured at fair value. The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in Philippine Peso (₱), the Group's functional currency. All values are rounded to the nearest million peso unless otherwise indicated.

Statement of Compliance

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in compliance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS) Accounting Standards. PFRS Accounting Standards include Philippine Financial Reporting Standards, Philippine Accounting Standards (PAS) and Interpretations issued by the Philippine Interpretations Committee (PIC).

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group comprise the financial statements of the Parent Company and the following wholly and majority-owned domestic subsidiaries:

Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date of acquisition, being the date on which the Group obtains control, and continue to be consolidated until the date when such control ceases. Control is achieved when the Parent Company is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. Consolidation of subsidiaries ceases when control is transferred out of the Parent Company.

Specifically, the Parent Company controls an investee if, and only if, the Parent Company has:

- power over the investee (i.e., existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee);
- exposure or rights to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- the ability to use its power over the investee to affect its returns.

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- i. the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee
- ii. rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- iii. the Group's voting rights and potential voting rights

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Parent Company, using consistent accounting policies. All intragroup transactions, balances, income and expenses resulting from intragroup transactions and dividends are eliminated in full on consolidation.

Non-controlling Interests

Non-controlling interests (NCI) represent the portion of profit or loss and net assets in a subsidiary not attributed, directly or indirectly, to the Parent Company. The interest of non-controlling shareholders may be initially measured at fair value or share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. The choice of measurement basis is made on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis. Subsequent to acquisition, NCI consists of the amount attributed to such interests at initial recognition and the NCI's share of changes in equity since the date of combination.

NCI are presented separately in the consolidated statements of income, consolidated statements of comprehensive income, consolidated statements of changes in equity and within equity in the consolidated statements of financial position, separately from the Parent Company's equity.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income (OCI) are attributed to the equity holders of the Parent Company and to the NCI, even if that results in the NCI having a deficit balance.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- derecognizes the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary, the carrying amount of any NCI and the cumulative translation differences, recorded in equity;
- recognizes the fair value of the consideration received, the fair value of any investment retained and any surplus or deficit in profit or loss; and
- reclassifies the Parent Company's share of components previously recognized in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

Business Combinations Involving Entities Under Common Control

A business combination involving entities under common control is accounted for using the uniting of interest method, except when the acquisition is deemed to have commercial substance for the Group, in which case the business combination is accounted for under the acquisition method. The combined entities accounted for by the uniting of interests method reports the results of operations for the period in which the combination occurs as though the entities had been combined as of the beginning of the period. Financial statements of the separate entities presented for prior years are also restated on a combined basis to provide comparative information. The effects of intercompany transactions on assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses for the periods presented, and on retained earnings at the beginning of the periods presented are eliminated to the extent possible.

Under the uniting of interest method, the acquirer accounts for the combination as follows:

- the assets and liabilities of the acquiree are consolidated using the existing carrying values instead of fair values;
- intangible assets and contingent liabilities are recognized only to the extent that they were recognized by the acquiree in accordance with applicable PFRS Accounting Standards;
- no amount is recognized as goodwill;
- any non-controlling interest is measured as a proportionate share of the book values of the related assets and liabilities; and
- comparative amounts are restated as if the combination had taken place at the beginning of the earliest comparative period presented.

The excess of the cost of business combinations over the net carrying amounts of the assets and liabilities of the acquired companies is recognized within the equity section of the consolidated statements of financial position.

When evaluating whether an acquisition has commercial substance, the Group considers the following factors, among others:

- the purpose of the transaction;
- the involvement of outside parties in the transaction, such as NCI or other third parties; and
- whether or not the transaction is conducted at fair value.

Business Combinations and Goodwill

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The cost of an acquisition is measured as the aggregate of the fair values, at the date of exchange, of assets given, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the acquirer elects whether to measure the NCI in the acquiree either at fair value or at the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition. Acquisition-related costs are expensed and included in the consolidated statements of income.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities of the acquiree for appropriate classification and designation in accordance with the contractual terms, economic circumstances and pertinent conditions as at the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in host contracts by the acquiree. The Group also assesses whether assets or liabilities of the acquiree that are previously unrecognized in the books of the acquiree will require separate recognition in the consolidated financial statements of the Group at the acquisition date.

In a business combination achieved in stages, the Group remeasures its previously held equity interest in the acquiree at its acquisition-date fair value and recognizes the resulting gain or loss, if any, in the consolidated statements of income. Any recognized changes in the value of its equity interest in the acquiree previously recognized in other comprehensive income are recognized by the Group in profit or loss, as if the previously held equity interest is disposed of.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer will be recognized at fair value at the acquisition date. Subsequent changes to the fair value of the contingent consideration which is deemed to be an asset or liability will be recognized either in the consolidated statements of income or as changes to other comprehensive income. If the contingent consideration is classified as equity, it shall not be remeasured until it is finally settled within equity.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the reporting period in which the combination occurs, the Group reports provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. Those provisional amounts are adjusted during the measurement period, or additional assets or liabilities are recognized, to reflect new information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as at the acquisition date that if known, would have affected the amounts recognized as at that date. The measurement period is the period from the date of acquisition to the date the Group receives complete information about facts and circumstances that existed as at the acquisition date and is subject to a maximum of one (1) year.

Goodwill is initially measured as the excess of the aggregate of the consideration transferred, the amount recognized for any NCI in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest, if any, over the fair value of the net assets acquired.

If after reassessment, the fair value of the net assets acquired exceeds the consideration transferred, the amount recognized for any NCI in the acquiree and the fair value of the acquirer's previously held interest, if any, the difference is recognized immediately in the consolidated statements of income as 'Gain on bargain purchase'.

After initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Any impairment loss is recognized immediately in the consolidated statements of income and is not subsequently reversed. For the purpose of impairment testing, goodwill acquired in a business combination is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units (CGU) that are expected to benefit from the combination from the acquisition date irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the acquiree are assigned to those units.

Goodwill is not amortized but is reviewed for impairment at least annually.

Where goodwill forms part of a CGU and part of the operation within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operation disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operation when determining the gain or loss on disposal of the operation. Goodwill disposed of in this circumstance is measured based on the relative values of the operation disposed of and the portion of the CGU retained.

Change in Ownership without Loss of Control

Changes in the Group's ownership interest in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions. In such circumstances, the carrying amounts of the controlling and NCI are adjusted by the Group to reflect the changes in its relative interests in the subsidiary. Any difference between the amount by which the NCI is adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity and attributed to the equity holders of the Parent Company.

Changes in Accounting Policies and Disclosures

The accounting policies adopted are consistent with those of the previous financial year, except for the adoption of new standards effective in 2025. The Group has not early adopted any standard, interpretation or amendment that has been issued but is not yet effective.

The following amendment became effective as of January 1, 2025:

Amendments to PAS 21, Lack of exchangeability

The amendments specify how an entity should assess whether a currency is exchangeable and how it should determine a spot exchange rate when exchangeability is lacking.

The amendments also require disclosure of information that enables users of an entity's financial statements to understand how the currency not being exchangeable into the other currency affects, or is expected to affect, the entity's financial performance, financial position and cash flows. This amendment did not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

Material Accounting Policy Information

Current versus Noncurrent Classification

The Group presents assets and liabilities in the consolidated statements of financial position based on current/noncurrent classification. An asset is current when:

- It is expected to be realized or intended to be sold or consumed in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is expected to be realized within twelve months after the reporting period

All other assets are classified as noncurrent.

A liability is current when:

- It is expected to be settled in normal operating cycle
- It is held primarily for the purpose of trading
- It is due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period or there is no unconditional right to defer the settlement of liability for at least twelve months after the reporting period

The Group classifies all other liabilities as noncurrent.

Deferred income tax asset and liability are classified as noncurrent asset and liability, respectively.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and in banks. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with original maturities of three months or less from dates of placement and that are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Fair Value Measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability takes place either:

- in the principal market for the asset or liability, or
- in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability.

The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible to the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their best economic interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset takes into account a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximizing the use of relevant observable inputs and minimizing the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the consolidated financial statements are categorized within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

- Level 1: Quoted (unadjusted) market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities
- Level 2: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable
- Level 3: Valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

For assets and liabilities that are recognized in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis, the Group determines whether transfers have occurred between levels in the hierarchy by reassessing categorization (based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole) at the end of each reporting period.

External valuers are involved for valuation of significant assets, such as investment properties. Selection criteria include market knowledge, reputation, independence and whether professional standards are maintained.

The Group, in conjunction with the external valuers, also compares each of the changes in the fair value of each asset with relevant external sources to determine whether the change is reasonable.

For the purpose of fair value disclosures, the Group has determined classes of assets on the basis of the nature, characteristics and risks of the asset and the level of the fair value hierarchy as explained above.

Financial Instruments – Initial Recognition and Subsequent Measurement

Date of recognition

The Group recognizes a financial asset or a financial liability in the consolidated statements of financial position when it becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognized on the trade date, which is the date when the Group commits to purchase or sell assets.

a. Financial assets

Initial recognition of financial instruments

At initial recognition, financial assets are classified as, and subsequently measured at amortized cost, FVOCI and FVTPL.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. The Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Trade receivables, except for installment contract receivables, are measured at the transaction price determined under PFRS 15. Refer to the accounting policies on Revenue from contracts with customers.

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortized cost or FVOCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest (SPPI)' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is referred to as the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both.

Subsequent measurement

For purposes of subsequent measurement, financial assets are classified in four categories:

- Financial assets at amortized cost (debt instruments)
- Financial assets at FVOCI with recycling of cumulative gains and losses (debt instruments)
- Financial assets designated at FVOCI with no recycling of cumulative gains and losses upon derecognition (equity instruments)
- Financial assets at FVTPL

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group does not have debt instruments classified at FVOCI.

Financial assets at amortized cost

This category is the most relevant to the Group. The Group measures financial assets at amortized cost if both of the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held within a business model with the objective to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows; and
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Financial assets at amortized cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest (EIR) method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the asset is derecognized, modified or impaired.

The Group's financial assets at amortized cost includes cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, receivables, and due from related parties.

Financial assets designated at FVOCI (equity instruments)

Upon initial recognition, the Group can elect to classify irrevocably its equity investments as equity instruments designated at FVOCI when they meet the definition of equity under PAS 32, Financial Instruments: Presentation and are not held for trading. The classification is determined on an instrument-by-instrument basis.

Gains and losses on these financial assets can no longer be recycled to profit or loss. Foreign exchange revaluations are recognized in OCI. Dividends are recognized as other income in the consolidated statements of income when the right of payment has been established, except when the Group benefits from such proceeds as a recovery of part of the cost of the financial asset, in which case, such gains are recorded in OCI. Equity instruments designated at FVOCI are not subject to impairment assessment.

The Group's financial assets at FVOCI includes investments in quoted and unquoted equity instruments.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets at FVTPL include financial assets held for trading, financial assets designated upon initial recognition at fair value through profit or loss, or financial assets mandatorily required to be measured at fair value. Financial assets are classified as held for trading if they are acquired for the purpose of selling or repurchasing in the near term. Derivatives, including separated embedded derivatives, are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments. Financial assets with cash flows that are not solely payments of principal and interest are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model. Notwithstanding the criteria for debt instruments to be classified at amortized cost or at fair value through OCI, as described above, debt instruments may be designated at fair value through profit or loss on initial recognition if doing so eliminates, or significantly reduces, an accounting mismatch.

Financial assets at FVTPL are carried in the consolidated statements of financial position at fair value with net changes in fair value recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

This category includes investment in UITF which are held for trading.

Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognized (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statements of financial position) when:

- The rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- The Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if, and to what extent, it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset, nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognize the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognizes an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations that the Group has retained. Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of Financial Assets

The Group recognizes an allowance for expected credit losses (ECL) for all debt instruments not held at FVTPL.

ECL represents credit losses that reflect an unbiased and probability-weighted amount which is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes, the time value of money and reasonable and supportable information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. The ECL allowance is based on the credit losses expected to arise over the life of the asset (the lifetime ECL), unless there has been no significant increase in credit risk since origination, in which case, the allowance is based on the 12-month ECL. The 12-month ECL is the portion of lifetime ECL that results from default events on a financial instrument that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date. Lifetime ECL are credit losses that results from all possible default events over the expected life of a financial instrument.

For trade receivables, installment contracts receivable and contract assets, the Group applies a simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Therefore, the Group does not track changes in credit risk, but instead recognizes a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

For other financial assets such as nontrade receivable, loans receivable, due from related parties and other receivables, ECLs are recognized in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12-months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk (SICR) since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the timing of the default (a lifetime ECL).

For cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments, the Group applies the low credit risk simplification. The probability of default and loss given defaults are publicly available and are considered to be low credit risk investments. It is the Group's policy to measure ECLs on such instruments on a 12-month basis. However, when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since origination, the allowance will be based on the lifetime ECL. The Group uses the ratings from reputable credit rating agencies to determine whether the debt instrument has SICR and to estimate ECLs.

The key inputs in the model include the Group's definition of default and historical data of three years for the origination, maturity date and default date. The Group considers trade receivables and contract assets in default when contractual payment is 90 days past due, except for certain circumstances when the reason for being past due is due to reconciliation with customers of payment records which are administrative in nature which may extend the definition of default to 90 days and beyond. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to be in default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group.

Determining the stage for impairment

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether there has been a SICR for financial assets since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. The Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort for this purpose. This includes quantitative and qualitative information and forward-looking analysis.

The Group considers that there has been a SICR when contractual payments are more than 90 days past due.

An exposure will migrate through the ECL stages as asset quality deteriorates. If, in a subsequent period, asset quality improves and also reverses any previously assessed SICR since origination, then the loss allowance measurement reverts from lifetime ECL to 12-months ECL.

b. Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at FVTPL, loans and borrowings, payables, or as derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognized initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include "Accounts and other payables", "Short-term and long-term debts", "Liabilities on purchased properties", "Dividends payable", and "Due to related parties", and "Other current liabilities".

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group does not have financial liabilities at FVTPL.

Subsequent measurement

The measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification, as described below:

Loans and borrowings

This is the category most relevant to the Group. After initial recognition, interest-bearing loans and borrowings are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the EIR method. Gains and losses are recognized in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognized as well as through the EIR amortization process.

Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The EIR amortization is included as finance costs in the consolidated statements of income.

This category generally applies to short-term debt, long-term debt, bonds payable and liabilities on purchased properties.

Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Financial liabilities at FVTPL include financial liabilities held for trading and financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition as at fair value through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities are classified as held for trading if they are incurred for the purpose of repurchasing in the near term. This category also includes derivative financial instruments entered into by the Group that are not designated as hedging instruments in hedge relationships as defined by PFRS 9. Separated embedded derivatives are also classified as held for trading unless they are designated as effective hedging instruments.

Gains or losses on liabilities held for trading are recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

Financial liabilities designated upon initial recognition at FVTPL are designated at the initial date of recognition, and only if the criteria in PFRS 9 are satisfied. The Group has not designated any financial liability as at FVTPL.

Derecognition

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as the derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability. The difference in the respective carrying amounts is recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

c. Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statements of financial position, if, and only if, there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The Group assesses that it has a currently enforceable right of offset if the right is not contingent on a future event, and is legally enforceable in the normal course of business, event of default, and event of insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group and all of the counterparties.

d. Derivative financial instruments and hedge accounting

Initial Recognition and Subsequent Measurement

The Group uses derivative financial instruments such as interest rate swaps to hedge the risks associated with foreign currency and interest rate fluctuations. Derivative financial instruments are initially recognized at fair value on the date on which the derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at fair value. Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative.

For the purpose of hedge accounting, hedges are classified as:

- Fair value hedges when hedging the exposure to changes in the fair value of a recognized asset or liability or an unrecognized firm commitment; or,
- Cash flow hedges when hedging the exposure to variability in cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk associated with a recognized asset or liability or a highly probable forecast transaction or the foreign currency risk in an unrecognized firm commitment.

A hedging relationship qualifies for hedge accounting if it meets all of the following effectiveness requirements:

- There is an economic relationship between the hedged item and the hedging instrument.
- The effect of credit risk does not dominate the value changes that result from that economic relationship.
- The hedge ratio of the hedging relationship is the same as that resulting from the quantity of the hedged item that the Group actually hedges and the quantity of the hedging instrument that the Group actually uses to hedge that quantity of the hedged item.

Hedges are accounted for as fair value hedges or cash flow hedges.

Fair value hedge

The change in the fair value of a hedge instrument is recognized in the consolidated statements of income. The change in the fair value attributable to the risk hedged is recorded as part of the carrying value of the hedge instrument and is also recognized in the consolidated statements of income as other expense.

For fair value hedges carried at amortized cost, any adjustment to carrying value is amortized through profit or loss over the remaining term of the hedge using the EIR method. The EIR amortization is initiated when an adjustment exists and no later than when the hedged instrument ceases to be adjusted for changes in its fair value attributable to the risk being hedged.

In case of derecognition, the unamortized fair value of the hedged instrument is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

Cash flow hedges

The effective portion of the gain or loss on the hedging instrument is recognized in OCI, while any ineffective portion is recognized immediately in the consolidated statements of income. The cash flow hedge reserve is adjusted to the lower of the cumulative gain or loss on the hedging instrument and the cumulative change in the fair value of the hedged instrument.

The amounts accumulated in OCI are accounted for depending on the nature of the underlying hedged transaction. If the hedged transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial item, the amount accumulated in equity is removed from the separate component of equity and included in the initial cost or other carrying amount of the hedged asset or liability. This is not a reclassification adjustment and will not be recognized in OCI for the period. This also applies where the hedged forecast transaction of a non-financial asset or non-financial liability subsequently becomes a firm commitment for which fair value hedge accounting is applied.

For any other cash flow hedges, the amount accumulated in OCI is reclassified to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment in the same period or periods during which hedged cash flows affect profit or loss.

If hedge accounting is discontinued, the amount accumulated in OCI shall remain in accumulated OCI if the hedged future cash flows are still expected to occur. Otherwise, the amount shall be reclassified to profit or loss as a reclassification adjustment. When the hedged cash flow occurs, any amount remaining in accumulated OCI shall be accounted for depending on the nature of the underlying transaction.

Inventories

Real estate inventories

Property acquired that are being developed or constructed for sale in the ordinary course of business, rather than to be held for rental or capital appreciation, is held as real estate inventory. Real estate inventories consist of land and improvements, condominium units held for sale and residential units. Land and land improvements are carried at the lower of cost or net realizable value (NRV).

Cost includes:

- Acquisition cost of subdivision land;
- Amounts paid to contractors for construction and development of subdivision land, residential houses and lots and condominium units;
- Planning and design costs, cost of site preparation, professional fees for legal services, property transfer taxes, construction overheads and other related costs; and
- Borrowing costs capitalized prior to start of pre-selling activities for the real estate project.

NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of the business, based on market prices at the reporting date, less costs to complete and the estimated costs of sale. The carrying amount of inventories is reduced through the use of allowance account and the amount of loss is charged to profit or loss.

Construction in progress (CIP) includes development or construction costs incurred for real estate projects that have not yet reached the preliminary stage of completion and/or not yet launched. This account also includes owner supplied materials. Upon reaching the preliminary stage of completion, these are transferred to 'Condominium units held for sale'.

Costs of condominium units held for sale includes the carrying amount of the land transferred from 'Land and improvements' at the commencement of its real estate projects and those costs incurred for construction, development and improvement of the properties, including capitalized borrowing costs.

Costs of residential units include land cost, land improvement costs, borrowing costs, amounts paid to contractors for construction and development, planning and design cost, cost of site preparation, professional fees, property transfer taxes, construction overheads and other related costs.

Gasoline retail, petroleum products and chemicals

Cost is determined using first-in, first-out method. Oil, petroleum products and chemicals are carried at the lower of cost and net realizable value (NRV). Cost comprises all cost of purchase and cost incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition. NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated cost necessary to make the sale.

Automotive inventories

These are inventories of the Toyota Group which are valued at the lower of cost or NRV. NRV is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion, marketing and distribution.

Costs incurred in bringing each product to its present location and condition are accounted for as follows:

Raw materials and spare parts	– Purchase cost on a weighted average cost
Finished goods and work-in-process	– Cost of direct material and labor and proportion of fixed and overhead manufacturing costs allocated based on normal operating capacity
Raw materials and spare parts in-transit	– Cost is determined using the specific identification method

Joint Arrangements

Joint arrangements are arrangements with respect to which the Group has joint control, established by contracts requiring unanimous consent from the parties sharing control for decisions about the activities that significantly affect the arrangements' returns. They are classified and accounted for as follows:

- Joint operation – when the Group has rights to the assets, and obligations for the liabilities, relating to an arrangement, the Group accounts for each of its assets, liabilities and transactions, including its share of those held or incurred jointly, in relation to the joint operation in accordance with the PFRS Accounting Standards applicable to the particular assets, liabilities and transactions.
- Joint venture – when the Group has rights only to the net assets of the arrangements, the Group accounts for its interest using the equity method, the same as the Group's accounting for investments in associates.

The financial statements of the joint venture are prepared for the same reporting period as the Group's financial statements. Where necessary, adjustments are made to bring the accounting policies of the joint venture in line with its policies.

The Group has no joint arrangement accounted as joint operation.

Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

Investments in associates and joint ventures are accounted for under the equity method of accounting. An associate is an entity in which the Group has significant influence and which is neither a subsidiary nor a joint venture of the Group. A joint venture (JV) is a contractual agreement whereby two or more parties undertake an economic activity that is subject to joint control.

An investment is accounted for using the equity method from the day it becomes an associate or a joint venture. On acquisition of investment, the excess of the cost of investment over the investor's share in the net fair value of the investee's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities is accounted for as goodwill and included in the carrying amount of the investment and is neither amortized nor individually tested for impairment. Any excess of the investor's share of the net fair value of the associate's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over the cost of the investment is excluded from the carrying amount of the investment, and is included as income in the determination of the share in the earnings of the investee.

Under the equity method, the investments in and advances to associates and joint ventures are carried in the consolidated statements of financial position at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share in the net assets of the investees, less any impairment in value.

The consolidated statements of comprehensive income reflect the Group's share in the results of operations of the investee companies and the Group's share in the movements of the investee's other comprehensive income (OCI). The Group's share on total comprehensive income of an associate is shown in the consolidated statements of income and consolidated statements of comprehensive income. The aggregate of the Group's equity in net income of associates and joint ventures is shown on the face of the consolidated statements of income as part of operating profit and represents profit or loss after tax and NCI in the subsidiaries of the associate and joint venture.

Profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and the investee companies are eliminated to the extent of the interest in the investee companies, and for unrealized losses, to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment of the assets transferred. Dividends received from investee companies are treated as a reduction of the accumulated earnings included under 'Investments and advances' account in the consolidated statement of financial position.

The Group discontinues applying the equity method when its investments in investee companies are reduced to zero. Accordingly, additional losses are not recognized unless the Group has guaranteed certain obligations of the associates or joint venture. When the investees subsequently report net income, the Group will resume applying the equity method but only after its equity in the net income equals the equity in net losses of associates and joint ventures not recognized during the period the equity method was suspended.

Upon loss of significant influence over the associates or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognizes any retained investments at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or JV upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognized in profit or loss.

The Group records provisional amounts when the fair value for an acquired investment is not readily available at the date of acquisition. The Group adjusts the provisional amounts recognized at the acquisition date to reflect any information obtained about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have affected the measurement of the amounts recognized as of that date. This measurement period shall not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

Investment Properties

Investment properties consist of properties that are held to earn rentals and that are not occupied by the companies in the Group. Investment properties, except for land, are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization and any impairment in residual value. Land is carried at cost less any impairment in value.

Depreciation and amortization of investment properties are computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives (EUL) of the properties which is 10 to 40 years.

Investment properties are derecognized when either they have been disposed of, or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from its disposal. Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognized in the consolidated statements of income in the year of retirement or disposal.

Transfers are made to investment property when there is a change in use, evidenced by ending of owner-occupation, commencement of an operating lease to another party or ending of construction or development. Transfers are made from investment property when and only when there is a change in use, evidenced by commencement of owner-occupation or commencement of development with a view to sale. Transfers between investment property, owner-occupied property and inventories do not change the carrying amount of the property transferred and they do not change the cost of that property for measurement or disclosure purposes.

CIP is stated at cost. This includes cost of construction and other direct costs. Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the construction of investment properties are capitalized during the construction period. CIP is not depreciated until such time as the relevant assets are in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortization and any impairment in value. The initial cost of property and equipment comprises its purchase price, including import duties, taxes and any directly attributable costs of bringing the property and equipment to its working condition and location for its intended use, including capitalized borrowing costs.

CIP is stated at cost. This includes cost of construction and other direct costs. CIP is not depreciated until such time that the relevant assets are completed and put into operational use.

Major repairs are capitalized as part of property and equipment only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the items can be measured reliably. All other repairs and maintenance are charged against operations as incurred.

Depreciation and amortization of property and equipment commences once the property and equipment are available for use and are calculated on the straight-line basis over the following EUL of the property and equipment as follows:

	Years
Buildings and land improvements	9 to 25
Building	15 to 40
Machinery, tools and equipment	2 to 10
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	3 to 5
Transportation equipment	5
Leasehold improvements	2 to 10 or lease term (whichever is shorter)
Other property and equipment	3 to 5

The assets' residual values, EUL and depreciation and amortization method are reviewed periodically to ensure that the period and method of depreciation and amortization are consistent with the expected pattern of economic benefits from items of property and equipment.

Transfers are made from property and equipment, when there is a change in use, evidenced by ending of owner-occupation, and with a view of sale.

Impairment or losses of items of property, plant and equipment, related claims for or payments of compensation from third parties and any subsequent purchase or construction of replacement assets are separate economic events and are accounted for separately.

When property and equipment are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost of the related accumulated depreciation and amortization and provision for impairment losses, if any, are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is credited to or charged against current operations.

Fully depreciated assets are still carried in the accounts until they are no longer in use.

Intangible Assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured on initial recognition at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value as at the date of the acquisition. Following initial recognition, intangible assets, except goodwill and assets with indefinite useful life, are carried at cost less any accumulated amortization and any accumulated impairment losses. Internally generated intangible assets, excluding capitalized development costs, are not capitalized and expenditure is reflected in the consolidated statements of income in the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

The useful lives of intangible assets with finite life are assessed at the individual asset level. Intangible assets with finite life are amortized over their useful life. Periods and method of amortization for intangible assets with finite useful lives are reviewed annually or earlier when an indicator of impairment exists. Changes in the expected useful life or the expected pattern of consumption of future economic benefits embodied in the intangible asset is accounted for by changing the amortization period or method, as appropriate, and are treated as changes in accounting estimates.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment annually either individually or at the cash-generating unit level. Such intangibles are not amortized. The useful life of an intangible asset with an indefinite useful life is reviewed annually to determine whether indefinite life assessment continues to be supportable. If not, the change in the useful life assessment from indefinite to finite is made on a prospective basis.

The Group's intangible assets consist of customer relationship, software costs and franchise. A gain or loss arising from derecognition of an intangible asset is measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the intangible asset and is recognized in the consolidated statements of income when the intangible asset is derecognized.

Customer Relationship

Customer relationship pertains to Toyota's contractual arrangements with its top dealer customers, which adds value to the operations of Toyota and enhances the latter's earnings potential. This is recognized initially at fair value and is assessed to have an indefinite useful life. Following initial recognition, the intangible asset is not amortized but assessed annually for impairment.

Software Costs

Costs related to software purchased by the Group for use in the operations are amortized on a straight-line basis over a period of three (3) to five (5) years.

Costs that are directly associated with identifiable and unique software controlled by the Group and will generate economic benefits exceeding costs beyond one year, are recognized as intangible assets to be measured at cost less accumulated amortization and provision for impairment losses, if any. Expenditures which enhance or extend the performance of computer software programs beyond their original specifications are recognized as capital improvements and added to the original cost of the software.

Franchise

Franchise pertains to Federal Land Group's fees paid for the operating rights of its fast food stores with estimated useful lives of three (3) to five (5) years.

Goodwill

Goodwill acquired in a business combination from the acquisition date is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units, or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, irrespective of whether other assets or liabilities of the Group are assigned to those units or groups of units.

Each unit or group of units to which the goodwill is so allocated:

- represents the lowest level within the Group at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes; and
- is not larger than a segment based on the Group's operating segments as determined in accordance with PFRS 8, Operating Segments.

Following initial recognition, goodwill is measured at cost, less any accumulated impairment loss. Goodwill is reviewed for impairment annually or more frequently, if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired (see Impairment of Non-financial Assets).

Where goodwill forms part of a cash-generating unit and part of the operations within that unit is disposed of, the goodwill associated with the operations disposed of is included in the carrying amount of the operations when determining the gain or loss on disposal of the operations. Goodwill disposed of in this circumstance is measured based on the relative values of the operations disposed of and the portion of the cash-generating unit retained.

Goodwill is presented separately in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Impairment of Non-financial Assets

The Group assesses at each financial reporting date whether there is an indication that their nonfinancial assets (e.g., investments in associates and joint ventures, joint arrangements, investment properties, property and equipment, goodwill and other intangible assets), may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's or CGU's fair value less costs to sell (FVLCTS) and its value-in-use (VIU) and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets. Where the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. In assessing the VIU, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognized in the consolidated statements of income in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at each financial reporting date as to whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognized impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognized. If that is the case, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation and amortization, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognized in the consolidated statements of income unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case, the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase. After such reversal, the depreciation and amortization charge is adjusted in future periods to allocate the asset's revised carrying amount, less any residual value, on a systematic basis over its remaining useful life.

This accounting policy applies primarily to the Group's property and equipment and investment properties. Additional considerations for other non-financial assets are discussed below.

Investments in associates and joint ventures

After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognize goodwill or any additional impairment loss with respect to the Group's net investment in its associates and joint venture. The Group determines at each financial reporting date whether there is any objective evidence that the investments in associates and joint ventures are impaired.

If this is the case, the Group calculates the amount of impairment as being the difference between the fair value of the associate and joint ventures and the carrying cost and recognizes the amount in the consolidated statements of income.

Intangible assets

Customer relationship is reviewed for impairment annually, similar with goodwill, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired. For intangible assets with finite useful lives, the carrying amount is assessed and written down to its recoverable amount when an indication of impairment occurs.

Goodwill

Goodwill is reviewed for impairment, annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may be impaired.

Impairment is determined for goodwill by assessing the recoverable amount of the CGU (or group of CGUs) to which the goodwill relates. Where the recoverable amount of the CGU (or group of CGUs) is less than the carrying amount of the CGU (or group of CGUs) to which goodwill has been allocated, an impairment loss is recognized immediately in the consolidated statements of income. Impairment losses relating to goodwill cannot be reversed for subsequent increases in its recoverable amount in future periods. The Group performs its annual impairment test of goodwill at reporting date.

Value-added Tax (VAT)

Revenue, expenses, and assets are recognized net of the amount of value-added tax except:

- where the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the tax authority, in which case, the tax is recognized as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of tax included.

The net amount of VAT recoverable from the tax authority is included under 'Prepayments and other current assets' in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Equity

The Group records common stock and preferred stock at par value and additional paid-in capital in excess of the total contributions received over the aggregate par values of the equity share. Incremental costs incurred directly attributable to the issuance of new shares are deducted from the proceeds.

Capital stock

The Parent Company has issued common stock and preferred stock that are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new common stock are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds. All other equity issuance costs are recognized as expense as incurred.

Where the Parent Company purchases its own common stock or preferred shares (i.e., treasury shares), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of applicable taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to the Parent Company's equity holders until the shares are cancelled or reissued.

Where such shares are subsequently reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the Parent Company's equity holders.

Additional paid-in capital

Amount of contribution in excess of par value is accounted for as an additional paid-in capital. Additional paid-in capital also arises from additional capital contribution from the shareholders.

Retained earnings

The amount included in retained earnings includes profit or loss attributable to the Group's equity holders and reduced by dividend on capital stock. Dividends on capital stock are recognized as a liability and deducted from equity when they are declared. Dividends for the year that are approved after the reporting date are dealt with as an event after the reporting date. Retained earnings may also include effect of changes in accounting policy as may be required by the standard's transitional provisions.

Unappropriated retained earnings represent that portion which can be declared as dividends to stockholders after adjustments for any unrealized items which are considered not available for dividend declaration. Appropriated retained earnings represent that portion which has been restricted and therefore is not available for any dividend declaration.

Other Comprehensive Income

Other comprehensive income comprises items of income and expenses that are recognized directly in equity. OCI items are either reclassified to profit or loss or directly to equity in subsequent periods.

Acquisition of Non-controlling Interest in a Subsidiary

Acquisition of non-controlling interest is accounted for as an equity transaction, whereby the difference between the fair value of consideration given and the share in the net book value of the net assets acquired is recognized in equity. In an acquisition without consideration involved, the difference between the share of the non-controlling interests in the net assets at book value before and after the acquisition is treated as transaction between equity owners under the 'Non-controlling interests' account in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue from contract with customers

The Group primarily derives its revenue from automotive operations and real estate sales. Revenue from contracts with customers is recognized when control of the goods or services is transferred to the customer at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

The disclosures of significant accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions relating to revenue from contracts with customers are provided in Note 3.

Automotive operations

The Group derives its revenue from automotive operations from the sale of manufactured vehicles, trading of completely built-up vehicles and local and imported auto parts and sale of services. In the sales contract with customers, services other than vehicle sales such as additional service, additional warranty and other services are separated from the sale of vehicles to identify performance obligations.

Timing of revenue recognition may change depending on when the performance obligation is satisfied, either at a point in time or over time. The Group recognizes revenue from goods or services at a point in time when the goods or services are transferred to the customers and fulfills the performance obligations. In order to determine whether the control over the goods or services is transferred over time, the Group determines whether the customer simultaneously obtains and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance and whether the assets controlled by the customer and whether the assets created by the Group have no substitute purpose, and whether the Group has the right to make executable claims for the portion that has been completed so far. The Group allocates the transaction prices based on the stand-alone selling prices to the various performance obligations identified in a single contract.

Revenue from sale of goods arises from sale of manufactured vehicles and trading of completely built-up vehicles and local and imported parts are recognized at a point in time. Revenue is recognized when the significant risks and reward of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer (including certain "bill and hold" sales, wherein the buyer takes title and accepts billings) which is normally upon confirmation of the ordered units and invoicing by the Group and also usually upon dispatch of goods by the dealer subsidiaries. Revenue from sale of goods is reduced by the portion attributable to the actual costs of maintenance service that are shouldered by the Group for certain Vehicles. This amount is included under "deferred income" and is recognized as revenue as the maintenance services are rendered by the dealers for the customers.

Service fees from installation of parts and repairs and maintenance of vehicles are recognized as revenue when the related services have been rendered. Other service fees from dealer operations assistance and mobility services are recognized on a monthly basis as the services are rendered and are consumed by customers.

The Group estimates the amounts of consideration depending on which method the entity expects to better predict the amount of consideration to which it will be entitled - the expected value or the most likely amount. Variable consideration is included in the transaction price only to the extent that it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the cumulative amount of revenue recognized will not occur in the future periods.

If the period between the transfer of the goods or services promised to the customer and the payment of the customer is within one year, a practical simple method that does not adjust the promised price for a significant financing component is used.

Real estate sales

The Group derives its real estate revenue from sale of lots, house and lot and condominium units. Revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completion stage are recognized over time during the construction period (or percentage of completion) since based on the terms and conditions of its contract with the buyers, the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

In measuring the progress of its performance obligation over time, the Group uses the output method. The Group recognizes revenue on the basis of direct measurements of the value to customers of the goods or services transferred to date, relative to the remaining goods or services promised under the contract. Progress is measured using survey of performance completed to date. This is based on the monthly project accomplishment report as approved by the construction manager which integrates the surveys of performance to date of the construction activities.

Any excess of progress of work over the right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional, recognized as residential and office development receivables, under trade receivables, is included in the "contract asset" account in the asset section of the consolidated statements of financial position.

Any excess of collections over the total of recognized trade receivables and contract assets is included in the "contract liabilities" account in the liabilities section of the consolidated statements of financial position.

Starting January 1, 2024, the Group adopted the remaining provisions of the PIC Q&A 2018-12-D, specifically on the significant financing component. The Group opted to adopt the changes using modified retrospective approach effective January 1, 2024 and the impact was recognized in the opening retained earnings. The comparative information is not restated.

The modified retrospective effect of the adoption of PIC Q&A 2018-12-D on the consolidated statement of financial position as at January 1, 2024 follows:

Sale of goods

Sale of goods is recognized from retail customers at the point of sale in the stores. This is measured at the fair value of the consideration received, excluding (or 'net of,' or 'reduced for') discounts, returns, rebates and sales taxes.

Rendering of services

Marketing fees, management fees from administration and property management are recognized when services are rendered.

Commission income

Commission income is recognized by reference to the percentage of collection of the agreed sales price or depending on the term of the sale as provided under the marketing agreement.

Management fees

Management fees from administrative, property management and other fees are recognized when services are rendered.

Other income

Other income also includes sale of scrap and sludge oil which is recognized when there is delivery of goods to the buyer, and recovery from insurance which is recognized when the right to receive payment is established.

Revenues outside the scope of PFRS 15

Interest income

Interest income is recognized as it accrues using the effective interest method.

Rent income

Rental income under noncancelable and cancelable leases on investment properties is recognized in the consolidated statements of income on a straight-line basis over the lease term and the terms of the lease, respectively, or based on a certain percentage of the gross revenue of the tenants, as provided under the terms of the lease contract.

Dividend income

Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive the payment is established.

Other income

Other customer-related fees such as penalties and surcharges are recognized at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to receive taking into account the provisions of the related contract.

Expense Recognition

Cost of goods and services sold

Cost of goods sold for vehicles and spare parts includes the purchase price of the products sold, as well as costs that are directly attributable in bringing the merchandise to its intended condition and location. These costs include the costs of storing and transporting the products. Vendor returns and allowances are generally deducted from cost of goods and services sold.

Other cost of goods sold includes Federal Land's gasoline and food products, and are recognized when goods are delivered which is usually at the point of sale in stores. Cost of services are recognized when services are rendered.

Cost of goods manufactured and sold

Cost of goods manufactured and sold includes the purchase price of the products manufactured, as well as costs that are directly attributable in bringing the merchandise to its intended condition and location.

Commissions

Commissions paid to sales or marketing agents on the sale of pre-completed real estate units are deferred when recovery is reasonably expected and are charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognized as earned. Accordingly, when the POC method is used, commissions are likewise charged to expense in the period the related revenue is recognized. These are recorded as 'Prepaid expenses' under 'Prepayments and other current assets' account.

General and administrative expenses

General and administrative expenses constitute costs of administering the business and are expensed as incurred.

Cost of real estate sales

The Group recognizes costs relating to satisfied performance obligations as these are incurred taking into consideration the contract fulfillment assets. These include costs of land, land development costs, building costs, professional fees, depreciation, permits and licenses and capitalized borrowing costs. These costs are allocated to the saleable area, with the portion allocable to the sold area being recognized as costs of sales while the portion allocable to the unsold area being recognized as part of real estate inventories.

Contract costs include all direct materials and labor costs and those indirect costs related to contract performance. Expected losses on contracts are recognized immediately when it is probable that the total contract costs will exceed total contract revenue. Changes in contract performance, contract conditions and estimated profitability, including those arising from contract penalty provisions, and final contract settlements which may result in revisions to estimated costs and gross margins are recognized in the year in which the changes are determined.

Cost of rental

Cost of rental services includes maintenance fee, depreciation, repairs and maintenance, and taxes and licenses in relation to rendering of services. Except for depreciation which is recognized on a straight-line basis, these are recognized when a decrease in future economic benefits related to a decrease in an asset or an increase of a liability has arisen than can be measured reliably. These are recognized when incurred and measured at the amount paid or payable.

Contract Balances

Receivables

A receivable represents the Group's right to an amount of consideration that is unconditional (i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of the consideration is due).

Contract assets

A contract asset is the right to consideration in exchange for goods or services transferred to the customer. If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before the customer pays consideration or before payment is due, a contract asset is recognized for the earned consideration that is conditional.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is the obligation to transfer goods or services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer. If a customer pays consideration before the Group transfers goods or services to the customer, a contract liability is recognized when the payment is made or the payment is due (whichever is earlier). Contract liabilities are recognized as revenue when the Group performs under the contract.

The contract liabilities also include payments received by the Group from the customers for which revenue recognition has not yet commenced.

Costs to obtain a contract

The incremental costs of obtaining a contract with a customer are recognized as an asset if the Group expects to recover them. The Group has determined that commissions paid to brokers and marketing agents on the sale of pre-completed real estate units are deferred when recovery is reasonably expected and are charged to expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognized as earned. Commission expense is included in the "Real estate costs and expenses" account in the consolidated statements of income.

Costs incurred prior to obtaining contract with customer are not capitalized but are expensed as incurred.

Amortization, derecognition and impairment of capitalized costs to obtain a contract

The Group amortizes capitalized costs to obtain a contract to cost of sales over the expected construction period using percentage of completion following the pattern of real estate revenue recognition. The amortization is included within cost of sales.

A capitalized cost to obtain a contract is derecognized either when it is disposed of or when no further economic benefits are expected to flow from its use or disposal.

At each reporting date, the Group determines whether there is an indication that cost to obtain a contract maybe impaired. If such indication exists, the Group makes an estimate by comparing the carrying amount of the assets to the remaining amount of consideration that the Group expects to receive less the costs that relate to providing services under the relevant contract. In determining the estimated amount of consideration, the Group uses the same principles as it does to determine the contract transaction price, except that any constraints used to reduce the transaction price will be removed for the impairment test.

Where the relevant costs or specific performance obligations are demonstrating marginal profitability or other indicators of impairment, judgement is required in ascertaining whether or not the future economic benefits from these contracts are sufficient to recover these assets. In performing this impairment assessment, management is required to make an assessment of the costs to complete the contract. The ability to accurately forecast such costs involves estimates around cost savings to be achieved over time, anticipated profitability of the contract, as well as future performance against any contract-specific performance indicators that could trigger variable consideration, or service credits. Where a contract is anticipated to make a loss, these judgments are also relevant in determining whether or not an onerous contract provision is required and how this is to be measured.

Pension Costs

The Parent Company and its subsidiaries have funded, noncontributory defined benefit retirement plans, administered by trustees, covering their permanent employees.

Pension cost is actuarially determined using the projected unit credit method. This method reflects services rendered by employees up to the date of valuation and incorporates assumptions concerning employees' projected salaries. Actuarial valuations are conducted with sufficient regularity, with option to accelerate when significant changes to underlying assumptions occur.

The net defined benefit liability or asset is the aggregate of the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the end of the reporting period reduced by the fair value of plan assets (if any), adjusted for any effect of limiting a net defined benefit asset to the asset ceiling. The asset ceiling is the present value of any economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

Defined benefit costs comprise the following:

- a. service cost;
- b. net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset; and
- c. remeasurements of net defined benefit liability or asset.

Service costs which include current service costs, past service costs and gains or losses on non-routine settlements are recognized as expense in the consolidated statement of income. Past service costs are recognized when plan amendment or curtailment occurs. These amounts are calculated periodically by independent qualified actuaries. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is the change during the period in the net defined benefit liability or asset that arises from the passage of time which is determined by applying the discount rate based on Philippine government bonds to the net defined benefit liability or asset. Net interest on the net defined benefit liability or asset is recognized as expense or income in the consolidated statement of income.

Remeasurements comprising actuarial gains and losses, return on plan assets and any change in the effect of the asset ceiling (excluding net interest on defined benefit liability) are recognized immediately in other comprehensive income in the period in which they arise. Remeasurements are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Plan assets are assets that are held by a long-term employee benefit fund or qualifying insurance policies. Plan assets are not available to the creditors of the Group, nor can they be paid directly to the Group. Fair value of plan assets is based on market price information. When no market price is available, the fair value of plan assets is estimated by discounting expected future cash flows using a discount rate that reflects both the risk associated with the plan assets and the maturity or expected disposal date of those assets (or, if they have no maturity, the expected period until the settlement of the related obligations). If the fair value of the plan assets is higher than the present value of the defined benefit obligation, the measurement of the resulting defined benefit asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

The Group's right to be reimbursed of some or all of the expenditure required to settle a defined benefit obligation is recognized as a separate asset at fair value only when reimbursement is virtually certain.

Employee leave entitlement

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognized as a liability when they are accrued to the employees. The undiscounted liability for leave expected to be settled wholly before twelve (12) months after the end of the annual reporting period is recognized for services rendered by employees up to the end of the reporting period.

Income Tax

Current tax

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted at the financial reporting dates. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in the tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations are subject to interpretations and establishes provisions where appropriate.

Deferred tax

Deferred tax is provided using the balance sheet liability method on all temporary differences, with certain exceptions, at the financial reporting date between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liability is recognized for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax asset is recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carryforward benefit of unused tax credits from excess minimum corporate income tax (MCIT) and net operating loss carryover (NOLCO), to the extent that it is probable that taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and carryforward benefit of unused tax credits from MCIT and NOLCO can be utilized. Deferred income tax, however, is not recognized when it arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting income nor taxable income.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at each reporting date and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable income will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rate that is expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax rate and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Foreign Currency Transactions

The Group's consolidated financial statements are presented in Philippine peso, which is also the Group's functional currency. Each entity within the Group determines its own functional currency and items included in the consolidated financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency.

Transactions and balances

Transactions denominated in foreign currency are recorded using the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated using the closing exchange rates prevailing at reporting date. Nonmonetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in foreign currency are translated using the exchange rate as at the date of the initial transaction and are not subsequently restated. All foreign exchange differences are taken to the consolidated statements of income.

Segment Reporting

The Group's operating businesses are organized and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic business unit that offers different products and serves different markets. Financial information on the Group's business segments is presented in Note 35.

Borrowing Costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition or construction of an asset that necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalized as part of the cost of the respective assets (included in “Real estate inventories” and “Investment properties” accounts in the consolidated statements of financial position). Capitalization ceases when pre-selling of real estate inventories under construction commences. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they occur. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

The interest capitalized is calculated using the Group’s weighted average cost of borrowings after adjusting for borrowings associated with specific developments. Where borrowings are associated with specific developments, the amounts capitalized is the gross interest incurred on those borrowings less any investment income arising on their temporary investment.

The capitalization of finance costs is suspended if there are prolonged periods when development activity is interrupted. Interest is also capitalized on the purchase cost of a site of property acquired specifically for redevelopment but only where activities necessary to prepare the asset for redevelopment are in progress.

Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has: (a) a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event; (b) it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation; and (c) a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Where the Group expects a provision to be reimbursed, the reimbursement is recognized as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as interest expense. Provisions are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, net of any reimbursement.

Provision for product warranties

Provision for product warranties are recognized when sale of the related products are consummated. The best estimate of the provision is recorded based on three (3) year warranty coverage provided by the Group as part of the sold product. Reversals are made against provision for the expired portion.

Leases

Group as lessee

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains a lease. A contract contains a lease if it conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognizes lease liabilities to make lease payments and Right-of-use (ROU) assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

ROU assets

The Group recognizes ROU assets (included in ‘Property and Equipment’) at the commencement date of the lease (i.e., the date the underlying asset is available for use). ROU assets are measured at cost less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of ROU assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognized and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received.

ROU assets are depreciated on a straight line basis over the shorter of the lease term and the estimated useful lives of the assets, as follows:

	Years

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of the lease, the Group recognizes lease liabilities measured at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term (included in ‘Other current liabilities’ and ‘Other noncurrent liabilities’). In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest (included in ‘Interest expense’) and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities is remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term or a change in the lease payments (Note 30).

Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of office spaces (i.e., those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the lease of low-value assets recognition exemption to leases of other equipment that are considered to be of low value (i.e., those with value of less than ₱250,000). Lease payments on short-term leases of low-value assets are recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Residual value of leased assets and deposits on lease contracts

The residual value of leased assets, which approximates the amount of guaranty deposit paid by the lessee at the inception of the lease, is the estimated proceeds from the sale of the leased asset at the end of the lease term. At the end of the lease term, the residual value of the leased asset is generally applied against the guaranty deposit of the lessee when the lessee decides to buy the leased asset.

Group as lessor

Leases where the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Rental income on operating leases is recognized on a straight line basis over the lease term. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognized over the lease term on the same bases as rental income.

Lease modification

Lease modification is defined as a change in the scope of a lease, or the consideration for a lease, that was not part of the original terms and conditions of the lease e.g., addition or termination of the right to use one or more underlying assets, or the extension or shortening of the contractual lease term. In case of a lease modification, the lessor shall account for any such modification by recognizing a new lease from the effective date of the modification, considering any prepaid or accrued lease payments relating to the original lease as part of the lease payments for the new lease.

In case of change in lease payments for an operating lease that does not meet the definition of a lease modification, the lessor shall account for any such change as a negative variable lease payment and recognize lower lease income. No rental income is recognized when the Group waives its right to collect rent and other charges.

Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the net income for the year attributable to the owners of the Parent Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year, after considering the retroactive effect of stock dividend declaration, if any.

Diluted earnings per share attributable to owners of the Parent Company is calculated in the same manner assuming that the weighted average number of common shares outstanding is adjusted for potential common shares from the assumed exercise of dilutive instruments.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements. These are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. Contingent assets are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements but disclosed when an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Events After Financial Reporting Date

Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Group's position at the reporting date (adjusting events) are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements when material.

Standards Issued But Not Yet Effective

Pronouncements issued but not yet effective are listed below. Unless otherwise indicated, the Group does not expect that the future adoption of the said pronouncements will have a significant impact on its consolidated financial statements. The Group intends to adopt the following pronouncements when they become effective.

Effective beginning on or after January 1, 2026

- Amendments to Illustrative Examples on PFRS 7, PFRS 18, PAS 1, PAS 8, PAS 26 and PAS 37, Disclosures about Uncertainties in the Financial Statements
- Amendments to PFRS 9 and PFRS 7, Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments
- Amendments to PFRS 9 and PFRS 7, Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity
- Annual Improvements to PFRS Accounting Standards—Volume 11
 - o Amendments to PFRS 1, Hedge Accounting by a First-time Adopter
 - o Amendments to PFRS 7, Gain or Loss on Derecognition
 - o Amendments to PFRS 9, Lessee Derecognition of Lease Liabilities and Transaction Price
 - o Amendments to PFRS 10, Determination of a 'De Facto Agent'
 - o Amendments to PAS 7, Cost Method

Effective beginning on or after January 1, 2027

- PFRS 17, Insurance Contracts

PFRS 17 is a comprehensive new accounting standard for insurance contracts covering recognition and measurement, presentation and disclosure. Once effective, PFRS 17 will replace PFRS 4, Insurance Contracts. This new standard on insurance contracts applies to all types of insurance contracts (i.e., life, non-life, direct insurance and re-insurance), regardless of the type of entities that issue them, as well as to certain guarantees and financial instruments with discretionary participation features. A few scope exceptions will apply.

The overall objective of PFRS 17 is to provide an accounting model for insurance contracts that is more useful and consistent for insurers. In contrast to the requirements in PFRS 4, which are largely based on grandfathering previous local accounting policies, PFRS 17 provides a comprehensive model for insurance contracts, covering all relevant accounting aspects. The core of PFRS 17 is the general model, supplemented by:

- o A specific adaptation for contracts with direct participation features (the variable fee approach)
- o A simplified approach (the premium allocation approach) mainly for short-duration contracts

On December 15, 2021, the FSRSC amended the mandatory effective date of PFRS 17 from January 1, 2023 to January 1, 2025. Thereafter, on February 14, 2025, the FSRSC approved the amendment to PFRS 17 that further defers the date of initial application by an additional two (2) years, to annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027. This will provide more time for the insurance industry to fully prepare and assess the impact of adopting the said standard.

The adoption of PFRS 17 will have an impact on the Group's financial statements through the application of the equity method of accounts for its investment in the associate that issues insurance contracts.

- PFRS 18, Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

The standard replaces PAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements and responds to investors' demand for better information about companies' financial performance. Entities are required to classify all income and expenses within the statement of profit or loss into one of five categories: operating, investing, financing, income taxes and discontinued operations, whereof the first three are new.

The requirements also include:

- o Required totals and subtotals in the statement of profit or loss
- o Disclosure of management-defined performance measures
- o Guidance on aggregation and disaggregation

The Group is currently assessing the impacts the standard will have on the primary financial statements and notes to the financial statements.

- PFRS 19, Subsidiaries without Public Accountability

3. Management's Judgments and Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in compliance with PFRS Accounting Standards requires the Group's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes. The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying consolidated financial statements are based upon management's evaluation of relevant facts and circumstances as of reporting date. Actual results could differ from such estimates.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under circumstances.

Judgments

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the consolidated financial statements:

Assessment of control over investees

The determination on whether the Group has control over an investee requires significant judgment. For this, the Group considers the following factors: (a) power over the investee, (b) exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and (c) the ability to use its power over the investee to affect the amount of the investor's returns. In assessing whether the Group has power over the investee, the Group assesses whether it has existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee.

Joint arrangements

The Group has investments in joint arrangements. The Group has joint control over these arrangements because under the contractual arrangements, unanimous consent is required from all the parties to the agreements for all relevant activities.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, Federal Land assessed that it does not exercise control at more than 51% ownership over certain joint ventures (JV) entities, but instead exercises joint control as Federal Land and the JV partners have contractually agreed to share control over the relevant economic activities of the JV entities and the decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of all parties. The Group's different joint arrangements are discussed in Note 8.

Determination of significant influence over another entity

The determination of significant influence over another entity, other than the rebuttable presumption of having ownership of over twenty percent (20.0%), requires significant judgment.

As at December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Parent Company determined that it exercises significant influence over MPIC in which it holds 19.62% and 18.20% ownership interests, respectively. Although the Parent Company holds less than 20.00% of the ownership interest and voting rights in MPIC, the Parent Company considers that it exercises significant influence through its entitlement to nominate at least two (2) out of fifteen (15) directors of MPIC and at least one (1) director from the Parent Company should be present in board meetings. The Parent Company's nominees also participate as member in the Audit Committee, Risk, Cybersecurity and Data Privacy Committee, Governance, Nomination and Sustainability Committee, and Finance Committee.

The combination of the Parent Company's ownership interest in MPIC, the representation in the BOD and in the abovementioned committees of MPIC provide the Parent Company with the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of MPIC. Accordingly, the Parent Company accounted for its investment in MPIC as an associate using the equity method of accounting.

Revenue and cost recognition

Selecting an appropriate revenue recognition method for a particular real estate sale transaction requires certain judgments based on, among others:

- buyer's initial payments in relation to the total contract price (or buyer's equity); and
- stage of completion of the project.

Existence of a contract for real estate transactions

The Group's primary document for a contract with a customer is a signed contract to sell. It has determined, however, that in cases wherein contracts to sell are not signed by both parties, the combination of its other signed documentation such as reservation agreement, official receipts, buyers' computation sheets and invoices, would contain all the criteria to qualify as contract with the customer under PFRS 15.

In addition, part of the assessment process of the Group before revenue recognition is to assess the probability that the Group will collect the consideration to which it will be entitled in exchange for the real estate property that will be transferred to the customer. In evaluating whether collectibility of an amount of consideration is probable, an entity considers the significance of the customer's initial payments in relation to the total contract price. Collectibility is also assessed by considering factors such as past history with the customer, age and pricing of the property. Management regularly evaluates the historical cancellations and back-outs if it would still support its current threshold of customers' equity before commencing revenue recognition.

Revenue recognition method and measure of progress

The Group concluded that revenue for real estate sales is to be recognized over time because: (a) the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use and; (b) the Group has an enforceable right for performance completed to date. The promised property is specifically identified in the contract and the contractual restriction on the Group's ability to direct the promised property for another use is substantive. This is because the property promised to the customer is not interchangeable with other properties without breaching the contract and without incurring significant costs that otherwise would not have been incurred in relation to that contract. In addition, under the current legal framework, the customer is contractually obliged to make payments to the developer up to the performance completed to date. In addition, the Group requires a certain percentage of buyer's payments of total selling price (buyer's equity), to be collected as one of the criteria in order to initiate revenue recognition. Reaching this level of collection is an indication of buyer's continuing commitment and the probability that economic benefits will flow to the Group. The Group considers that the initial and continuing investments by the buyer of about 10% would demonstrate the buyer's commitment to pay.

The Group has determined that the output method used in measuring the progress of the performance obligation faithfully depicts the Group's performance in transferring control of real estate development to the customers.

Operating lease commitments - Group as lessor

The Group entered into commercial property leases on its retail mall, investment properties and certain units of its real estate projects to different parties for a specific amount depending on the lease contracts. The Group has determined that based on the evaluation of the terms and conditions of the arrangements (i.e., the lease does not transfer the ownership of the asset to the lessee by the end of the lease term, the lessee has no option to purchase the asset at a price that is expected to be sufficiently lower than the fair value at the date the option is exercisable, and the lease term is not for the major part of the asset's economic life), that it retains all significant risks and rewards of ownership of these properties and so accounts for the contracts as operating leases.

Distinction between investment properties and owner-occupied properties

The Group determines whether a property qualifies as investment property. In making its judgment, the Group considers whether the property generates cash flows largely independent of the other assets held by an entity. Owner-occupied properties generate cash flows that are attributable not only to property but also to the other assets used in the production or supply process.

Some properties comprise a portion that is held to earn rentals or for capital appreciation and another portion that is held for use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes. If these portions cannot be sold separately as of financial reporting date, the property is accounted for as investment property only if an insignificant portion is held for use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes. Judgment is applied in determining whether ancillary services are so significant that a property does not qualify as investment property. The Group considers each property separately in making its judgment.

Useful life of customer relationship

Customer relationship pertains to Toyota's contractual arrangements with its top dealer customers which lay out the principal terms upon which its dealers agree to do business. Management assessed the useful life of the customer relationship to be indefinite since management is of the view that there is no foreseeable limit to the period over which the customer relationship is expected to generate net cash inflows to Toyota.

The said assessment is based on the track record of stability for the auto industry and the Toyota brand. Added to this is the commitment of management to continue to invest for the long term, to extend the period over which the intangible asset is expected to continue to provide economic benefits.

The carrying values of the customer relationship are disclosed in Note 13.

Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Group is currently involved in various legal proceedings and assessments. The estimate of the probable costs for the resolution of these claims has been developed in consultation with outside counsel handling the defense in these matters and is based upon an analysis of potential results. It is possible, however, that future results of operations could be materially affected by changes in the estimates or in the effectiveness of the strategies relating to these proceedings.

Management's Use of Estimates

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation and uncertainty at the financial reporting date, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Revenue recognition – real estate sales

The Group's revenue recognition policies require management to make use of estimates and assumptions that may affect the reported amounts of revenues and costs. The Group's revenue from real estate sales recognized based on the percentage of completion is measured principally on the basis of the estimated completion of a physical proportion of the contract work, and by reference to the actual costs incurred to date over the estimated total costs of the project. The estimation of the total cost of the real estate project requires technical inputs from project development engineers. The Group's contract assets and contract liabilities from real estate segment are disclosed in Note 21.

Evaluating net realizable value of inventories

Inventories are valued at the lower of cost and NRV. The Group reviews its inventory to assess NRV at least annually. The amount and timing of recorded expenses for any period would differ if different judgments were made or different estimates were utilized. The net realizable value of inventories is disclosed in Note 6.

Evaluating impairment of significant investments in associates

The Group reviews investments in associates and joint ventures for impairment. This includes considering certain indications of impairment such as significant changes, including significant underperformance relative to expected historical or projected future operating results and significant negative industry or economic trends.

As described in the accounting policy, the Group estimates the recoverable amount as the higher of the FVLCTS and VIU. In determining the present value of estimated future cash flows expected to be generated from the continued use of the assets, the Group is required to make estimates and assumptions that may affect investments in associates and joint ventures, and property and equipment.

The Group considers the significant or prolonged decline in the quoted market price of MBTC and the excess of carrying value over book value of MPIC as indicators of impairment. Accordingly, the Group conducted an impairment assessment of its investments in MBTC and MPIC. The Group uses the higher of FVLCTS and VIU in determining the recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of the investment in MBTC has been determined based on VIU using the free cash flow to equity methodology while that of MPIC is determined based on the sum of the parts of the VIU and FVLCTS of the MPIC Group. Based on the Group's impairment testing, the investments in MBTC and MPIC are determined to be not impaired.

The carrying values investments in associates are disclosed in Note 8.

Impairment of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life

The Group conducts an annual review for any impairment in the value of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful life (i.e., customer relationship). Goodwill and customer relationship are written down for impairment when the net present value of the forecasted future cash flows from the business are insufficient to support the carrying values. The Group estimates key inputs such as discounted future cash flows forecasts, expected gross margins, discount rates and long-term growth rates. The Group uses the weighted average cost of capital in discounting the expected cash flows from specific CGUs.

Refer to Notes 12 and 13 for the details regarding the carrying values of the Group's goodwill and intangible assets as well as details regarding the impairment review and assessment.

Recognition of deferred tax assets

The Group reviews the carrying amounts of deferred taxes at each reporting date and reduces deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilized. However, there is no assurance that the Group will generate sufficient taxable profit to allow all or part of deferred income tax assets to be utilized. The Group looks at its projected performance in assessing the sufficiency of future taxable income.

There are entities in the Group that are in NOLCO position and management assessed that it is not probable that they will be able to utilize the NOLCO before its expiry. Details of the recognized and unrecognized deferred tax assets on temporary differences of the Group are disclosed in Note 29.

Provision for product warranties

Estimated warranty costs are provided at the time of sale. The provision is based on the estimated costs of future servicing the products sold, the costs of which are not recoverable from customers. A provision is recognized for expected warranty claims on products sold during the last two (2) years, based on past experience of the level of returns and repairs. It is expected that most of these costs will be incurred in the next financial year and all will be incurred within three (3) years as of the reporting date. Provision for product warranty is disclosed in Note 20.

Purchase price allocation of investment in associates

In applying the equity method of accounting, the Parent Company is required to perform a purchase price allocation for its additional investments in MBTC to determine any notional goodwill in the investment or gain on bargain purchase from the acquisition. A significant portion of MBTC's net assets consist of financial assets and liabilities and non-financial assets consisting of investment properties, property and equipment and equity investments. The valuation of these assets and liabilities require estimates from management. For assets and liabilities that are short term in nature, the carrying values are assessed to approximate fair values. For financial assets and liabilities that are long-term in nature, fair values are estimated through the discounted cash flow methodology using the appropriate market rates e.g., current lending rates. For nonfinancial assets such as property and equipment and investment properties, fair values are determined based on an appraisal which follows sales comparison approach and depreciated replacement cost approach depending on the highest and best use of the assets.

4. Cash and Cash Equivalents and Short-term Investments

Cash and cash equivalents consists of:

Cash on hand	₱16	₱90
Cash in banks and other financial institutions (Note 27)	6,089	5,391
Cash equivalents (Note 27)	13,294	19,860
	₱19,399	₱25,341

Cash in banks earns interest at the prevailing bank deposit rates. Cash equivalents are made for varying periods of up to three months depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the prevailing interest rates ranging from 2.425% to 6.157% in 2025 and from 0.125% to 6.50% in 2024 and 2023 (Notes 23 and 27). The Group has foreign currency-denominated cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments (Note 33).

Short-term Investments

These represent the Group's foreign-currency denominated time deposits with original maturities of more than 3 months and up to 12 months and earn interest at the respective short-term investment rates, ranging from 3.975% to 4.500% in 2025 (Notes 23 and 27).

5. Receivables

This account consists of:

	2025	2024
Trade receivables	₱25,557	₱22,469
Nontrade receivables (Note 27)	2,051	1,809
Loans receivable (Note 27)	1,852	1,866

Total receivables shown in the consolidated statements of financial position follow:

	2025	2024
Current	₱32,537	₱28,185
Noncurrent	705	1,433

Trade Receivables

Trade receivables pertain to receivables from sale of vehicles and/or parts and services. These are noninterest-bearing and generally have 30 days to one-year term. These also include sale of lots with terms of 60 days to five years. Interest rates used in discounting the receivables on sale of lots range from 2.85% to 3.67% in 2025 and 2024. The Group has foreign currency-denominated receivables (Note 33).

Nontrade Receivables

Nontrade receivables mainly consist of vehicle acquisition plan loans extended to employees which are collectible within one year and expenses of the affiliates which were advanced by the Group (Note 27).

Loans Receivable

Loans receivable from various counterparties in real estate segment are as follows:

Counterparties	Principal	Interest rates	Availment	Maturity	Outstanding balance
					2025	2024
Cathay International Resources Corp.	₱705	3.15%	2012	2032	₱705	₱705

-do-	290	6.60%	2017	2032	-	135
					₱1,852	₱1,866

Interest income earned from these loans receivable amounted to ₱0.08 billion, ₱0.12 billion, and ₱0.12 billion in 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively amounts to:

Noncurrent receivables pertains to noncurrent portion of loans receivables amounting to ₱0.71 billion and ₱1.43 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Accrued Rent and Commission Income

Accrued rent pertains to tenants' rentals and their share in utilities (electricity, water and liquefied petroleum gas) and other charges to customers (Note 27). Commission income pertains to commission earned from sale of real estate properties (Note 27).

Management Fee Receivables

Management fee receivables pertain to management fee being charged by the real estate businesses for the conduct of relevant studies for the maintenance, upkeep and improvement of real estate properties and equipment of associates and affiliated companies (Note 27).

Installment Contracts Receivables

Installment contracts receivables pertain to receivables from the sale of residential and condominium units. Titles to the sold residential and condominium units are transferred to the buyers only upon full payment of the contract price.

Installment contracts receivables are collected over a period of one to 10 years. The fair value upon initial recognition for Federal Land is derived using the discounted cash flow methodology using discount rate of 8.00% in 2025 and 2024.

Other Receivables

Other receivables include receivable from employees, retention bond and guarantee fee receivables (Note 27).

Allowance for Credit Losses

Changes in the allowance for credit losses on receivables are as follows:

Others	338	111
	14,451	11,785
Less: Allowance for impairment losses	300	-
	P14,151	P11,785

CWT is attributable to taxes withheld by third parties arising from service fees, real estate revenue, auto sales and rental income.

Prepaid Ad-valorem tax represents advance payments to the BIR and the BOC. These are either advance payment to be applied against taxes on the manufactured vehicles or taxes on unsold inventories.

In 2024, the BIR and the Bureau of Customs (BOC) have granted tax credits to Toyota for the cumulative incremental ad-valorem tax paid of P2.98 billion as of December 31, 2023. Tax credits utilized amounted to P0.45 billion and P0.59 billion in 2025 and 2024, respectively, for payment of VAT and income tax.

Prepaid expenses mainly include prepayments for supplies, commission, taxes and licenses, rentals, and insurance.

Input VAT arises from the Group's purchases of goods and services and will be applied against output VAT on sales in the succeeding periods.

Advances to contractors and suppliers pertain to the Group's advances and initial payments for the purchase of construction materials and supplies and contractor services. These are liquidated every progress billing payment and will be due and demandable upon breach of contract.

Advances to officers and employees amounting to P146.43 million and P100.68 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, pertain mainly to cash advances for business-related expenses. Advances to officers and employees are liquidated within 30 days after incurrence of expense.

Cash advances to agents amounting to ₱10.16 million and ₱10.19 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, pertain to mobilization funds granted to agents to finance their sales-related needs. These advances are subject to liquidation within 30 days after the release of cash advance.

Others include deferred import charges, marginal deposits set aside for payment to the contractors and suppliers, security deposit for operating leases, ancillary services, and deposit for purchase of external services and materials and safeguard bonds represent payments made by Toyota to the BOC for the provisional safeguard duties on imported vehicles

8. Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

Fair Value of Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the fair value of the Group's investment in MBTC based on listed price and share of the Group in the net asset value of MPIC (MPIC shares are unlisted) are below the carrying value of the respective investments (Note 32).

Management considers significant or prolonged decline in the quoted market price of MBTC and the excess of carrying value of the investment in MPIC over the Group's share in its net assets as indicators of impairment. The Group uses the higher of FVLCTS and VIU in determining the recoverable amount on the investment.

The Group performed an impairment assessment of its investment in MBTC in 2025 and 2024. The recoverable amount of the investment in MBTC was based on the VIU of MBTC. The discount rate applied to MBTC cash flow projections is 12.24% and 12.56% in 2025 and 2024, respectively. Cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using a steady growth rate of 3.00% and 2.00% in 2025 and 2024, respectively. The calculation of VIU for the MBTC CGU is most sensitive to the assumptions on revenue and terminal growth rates and discount rate. Based on the Group's impairment testing, the investment in MBTC is determined to be not impaired.

The Group performed an impairment assessment of its investment in MPIC in 2025 and 2024. The recoverable amount of the investment in MPIC is based on VIU using the sum-of-the-parts valuation method. The sum-of-the-parts uses the VIU and FVLCTS of the entities within the MPIC Group. The VIU and FVLCTS calculations for the MPIC CGU are most sensitive to the FVLCTS of its listed associate based on its market price, and the VIU of MPIC's component businesses based on net asset values, cash flow forecasts and applicable discount rate. Based on the Group's impairment testing, the investment in MPIC is determined to be not impaired.

Limitation on dividend declaration of associates and joint venture

AXA Philippines

Section 195 of the Insurance Code provides that a domestic insurance company shall declare or distribute dividends on its outstanding stock only from profits remaining on hand after retaining the following unimpaired:

- the entire paid-up capital stock;
- the margin of solvency required;
- the legal reserve fund required; and
- a sum sufficient to pay all net losses reported or in the course of settlement and all liabilities for expenses and taxes.

MBTC and TFSPC

The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) requires banks to keep certain levels of regulatory capital and liquid assets, limit their exposures to other parts of the Group and comply with other regulatory ratios.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, there were no agreements entered into by the associates and joint ventures of the Group that may restrict dividends and other capital distributions to be paid, or loans and advances to be made or repaid to or from other entities within the Group.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, accumulated equity in net earnings amounting to ₱123.06 billion and ₱102.79 billion, respectively, are not available for dividend declaration. The accumulated equity in net earnings becomes available for dividends upon declaration and receipt of dividends from the investees.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group has no share in the commitments and contingencies of its associates and joint ventures.

Various parcels of land are leased to several individuals and corporations including related parties. Some of the lease contracts provide, among others, that within a certain period from the expiration of the contracts, the lessee will have to demolish and remove any and all improvements built within the leased properties. Otherwise, the lessor will cause the demolition and removal thereof and charge the cost to the lessee unless the lessor occupies and appropriates the same for its use and benefit. Rent income recognized from these properties amounted to ₱1.64 billion, ₱1.67 billion and ₱1.51 billion in 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively (Note 30).

Construction-in-progress pertains to the accumulated cost incurred for the development and redevelopment of Federal Land's malls. The mall redevelopment is expected to be completed in 2026.

The aggregate fair values of the Group's investment properties amounted to ₱84.56 billion and ₱76.73 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively (Note 32). The fair values of the Group's investment properties have been determined based on valuations performed by third party independent appraisers which are accredited by the SEC. The valuation approach and inputs to the valuation of investment properties are discussed in Note 32.

The Group has contractual commitments and obligations for the construction and development costs to be incurred for investment properties amounting to ₱356.61 million and ₱342.99 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. These will be recognized as liabilities in the Group's consolidated financial statements when the related services are received.

Construction-in-progress as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 pertains to Federal Land's and Toyota's building construction and improvements, and Toyota Group's machineries and building improvements. Expected completion of construction-in-progress is in subsequent year.

The Group has no significant capital commitments pertaining to its property and equipment as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Gain on disposal of property and equipment amounted to ₱52.34 million, ₱46.34 million and ₱18.42 million in 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively (Note 23).

Details of depreciation and amortization follow:

12. Goodwill

Goodwill in relation to acquisitions has been attributed to the following CGUs:

	2025	2024
TMBC	241	241
TSRLI	173	173
TRDCI	88	88
	₱5,926	₱5,926

Goodwill

Goodwill comprises the excess of the acquisition cost over the fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of companies acquired by the Group.

Toyota

The recoverable amount of Toyota CGU was based on VIU calculations using cash flow projections from financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period. The pre-tax discount rate applied to cash flow projections is 11.52% in 2025 and 11.79% in 2024. Cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using a steady growth rate of 3.62% in 2025 and 2.97% in 2024. No impairment loss was recognized for goodwill arising from the acquisition of Toyota.

The key assumptions in the VIU calculations of Toyota are the following:

- Budgeted gross margins - Gross margins are based on vehicle models mix per dealer and the foreign exchange movements between the Philippine Peso versus the United States (US) Dollar and the Japanese Yen versus the US Dollar.
- Growth rate - The projected growth rate is based on a conservative steady growth rate that does not exceed the compounded annual growth rate for the global automotive industry; and
- Pre-tax discount rate - Discount rates reflect management's best estimate of the risks associated with the specific CGU. This is the benchmark rate used by management to measure operating performance.

Management believes that no reasonably possible change in any of the aforementioned assumptions would cause the carrying value of the CGU to exceed their recoverable amount.

TMBC

The recoverable amount of TMBC CGU was based on VIU calculations using cash flow projections from financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period. The pre-tax discount rate applied to cash flow projections is 11.90% in 2025 and 12.36% in 2024. Cash flows beyond the forecast period are extrapolated using a long-term growth rate of 3.62% in 2025 and 2.97% in 2024. No impairment loss was recognized on the goodwill arising from the acquisition of TMBC.

The key assumptions in the VIU calculations of TMBC CGU are the following:

- Expected future cash inflows from automobile sales - The expected automobile sales is based on outlook and historical performance of the top car dealers.
- Growth rate - The projected growth rate is based on a conservative steady growth rate that does not exceed the compounded annual growth rate for the global automotive industry; and
- Pre-tax discount rate - Discount rate reflects management's best estimate of the risks associated with the specific CGU. This is the benchmark rate used by management to measure operating performance.

Management believes that no reasonably possible change in any of the aforementioned assumptions would cause the carrying value of the CGU to exceed their recoverable amount.

13. Intangible Assets

Intangible assets consist of:

	2025	2024
Customer relationship	₱3,883	₱3,883
Software costs - net	237	281
Franchise - net	3	3

Customer Relationship

Customer relationship pertains to Toyota's contractual arrangements with its top dealer customers which lay out the principal terms upon which its dealers agree to do business. Toyota's relationship with its top dealers adds value to the operations of Toyota and enhances the latter's earnings potential.

The recoverable amount of the customer relationship of the Group was based on VIU calculations using earnings projections from financial budgets approved by management covering a three-year period. The pre-tax discount rate applied to earnings projections is 13.38% and 14.42% in 2025 and 2024, respectively. Cash flows beyond the forecast period are extrapolated using a steady growth rate of 3.57% and 2.97% in 2025 and 2024, respectively. No impairment loss was recognized for the customer relationship arising from the acquisition of Toyota.

The key assumptions in the VIU calculations for the customer relationship are the following assumptions:

- Attrition rate - Sales to key customers for the four-year period are computed by taking into account a 5.00% attrition rate or 95.00% retention rate;
- Earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT) margin on key customers - A 6.01% EBIT margin was used in projecting the net operating profit on sales to key customers for the three-year period; and
- Pre-tax discount rate - Discount rates reflect management's best estimate of the risks associated with the specific CGU. This is the benchmark rate used by management to measure operating performance.

Management believes that no reasonably possible change in any of the aforementioned assumptions would cause the carrying value of the CGU to exceed their recoverable amount.

Software Cost

The Group's software costs pertain to software cost and licenses. The rollforward analysis of the Group's software cost is as follows:

	2025	2024

Automotive	₱20,037	₱19,805
Real estate	12,529	4,875
Others	191	37
	₱32,757	₱24,717

Trade payables for automotive pertain to the purchase of raw materials, spare parts and vehicles which are noninterest-bearing and are normally settled on one to 30-day term.

Trade payables for real estate pertain to billings received from contractors for construction costs incurred on a per project basis and commissaries for food products ordered.

The Group has foreign currency-denominated accounts and other payables (Note 33).

The details of accrued expenses are as follows:

	2025	2024
Dealers' incentives, supports and promotions	₱7,388	₱6,011
Salaries and employee benefits	1,024	1,086
Taxes	989	1,129

Regulatory fees and charges	54	10
Rent	27	10
Others	1,018	823
	₱12,759	₱11,370

Accrued expenses are noninterest-bearing and are normally settled within a 15-to-60-day term.

Telegraphic transfers and drafts and acceptance payable pertain to the liabilities of Toyota Group arising from importations of materials, spare parts and/or vehicles. These payables are normally settled after a 30-day term.

Accrued commissions are settled within one (1) year.

Deferred output tax pertains to VAT on the uncollected portion of the contract price of sold units.

Royalty payable represent cost of license for the use of technical know-how and information on data. The fees are calculated at 6.00% of the local value-added (LVA) of vehicles under production. The LVA represents the selling price less all costs for the knock-down parts, related taxes such as excise and sales tax and a certain percentage of administrative and selling costs. The fees also include charges from related affiliates and third-party suppliers representing initial costs of testing materials and trial parts and tools, sample molds and jigs that were utilized to test TMPC's present technical feasibility for the commercial production of newer car models.

Retentions payable represent a portion of construction cost withheld by the Federal Land Group and paid to the contractors after an agreed period commencing the completion of the project. Retentions payable due beyond one year are presented as noncurrent payable (Note 20).

Customer advances pertain to payments received from buyers for the processing of transfer of units upon turnover.

Others include refunds from cancelled sales from Federal Land and other government-related payables which are non-interest bearing and are normally settled within one year. These also include other non-interest bearing payables which are all due within one year.

Required Financial Ratios

The table below presents a summary of the financial ratios required to be maintained by each entity within the Group under existing loan agreements.

Entity	Financial Ratio	Required Ratio
Long-term loans
Parent Company	Debt-to-equity ratio	2.3:1
Federal Land (Affiliated)	Debt-to-equity ratio	3:1
Federal Land (Non-affiliated)	Debt-to-equity ratio	2:1
TMBC	Current ratio	1:1
TMBC	Debt-to-equity ratio	2.5:1
TMBC	Debt service ratio	1.2x

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Group has complied with the foregoing required financial ratios.

17. Foreign Long-term Debt

In July 2022, upon refinancing, the Parent Company entered into an interest rate swap agreement with a non-affiliated foreign bank with the following terms:

Pay	Receive	Terms
0.852%	JPY TONA + 0.65%	¥11.655 billion up to July 2024
0.865%	JPY TONA + 0.65%	¥11.655 billion up to July 2024
1.255%	JPY TONA + 0.80%	¥22.01 billion from July 2024 to March 2027

Under the agreement, the Parent Company, on a quarterly basis, pays fixed interest rate of 0.852% - 1.255% and receives a floating interest rate of JPY TONA plus 0.65% - 0.80% spread from July 2022 to March 2027. On the same date, the Parent Company designated the swap as an effective hedging instrument under a cash flow hedge arrangement (Note 33). As such, the effective portion of the changes in fair value of the swaps was recognized under other comprehensive income amounting to ₱47.77 million and ₱31.34 million in 2025 and 2024, respectively. The derivative asset amounted to ₱47.77 million and ₱31.34 million as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively (Note 14).

In accordance with the terms of the loan, the Parent Company may prepay on the last day of an interest period applicable thereto, the whole or any part of the loan. In July 2025 and July 2024, the Parent Company prepaid ¥1.40 billion and ¥1.30 billion, respectively.

18. Customers' Deposits

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, customers' deposits represent refundable reservation fees and advance payments received from customers which can be applied as payment to the respective automotive sale transaction with the Group.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the balance of this account amounted to ₱1.77 billion and ₱1.59 billion, respectively (Note 27).

19. Other Current Liabilities

This account consists of:

	2025	2024
VAT payable	₱1,780	₱1,768
Withholding taxes payable	580	466
Unearned warranty revenue	2	60
Lease liabilities (Note 30)	1	8
Others	142	134
	₱2,505	₱2,436

Others pertain to payables on utilities, contracted maintenance and security agencies and regulatory premium or contribution payable. These are normally payable within one year.

20. Liabilities on Purchased Properties and Other Noncurrent Liabilities

Liabilities on Purchased Properties

Liabilities on purchased properties are payables to various real estate property sellers. Under the terms of the agreements executed by Federal Land covering the purchase of certain real estate properties, the titles of the subject properties shall be transferred to Federal Land only upon full payment of the real estate loans.

In 2012, Federal Land acquired certain land and investment properties aggregating ₱3.72 billion, with 20.00% downpayment amounting to ₱0.74 billion. The outstanding balance amounting to ₱2.98 billion is payable in 13 years with 3.00% interest per annum. The outstanding balance was discounted at the prevailing market rate of 5.40% and the discounted liability as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 amounted to ₱0.85 billion and ₱1.00 billion, respectively.

In November 2019, Federal Land acquired a land located in Makati City. Of the total purchase amount of ₱1.20 billion, ₱0.29 billion was paid in 2019 as downpayment and ₱0.91 billion is payable in five equal annual installments commencing February 1, 2020 to 2024. The loan bears 3.50% interest per annum and is unsecured. The loan was settled in full in 2024.

Current portion of liabilities on purchased properties amounted to ₱0.85 billion and ₱1.00 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Accretion of interest in 2025, 2024 and 2023 amounted to ₱37.29 million, ₱20.40 million and ₱28.18 million, respectively.

Other Noncurrent Liabilities

This account consists of:

	2025	2024
Retention payable - noncurrent portion	₱1,204	₱1,215
Refundable and other deposits	1,177	891
Provisions (Note 36)	797	753

Finance lease obligation	142	182
Unearned warranty revenue	88	-
Unearned rent income	1	1
	₱3,564	₱3,131

Retentions payable represent a portion of construction cost withheld by the Group and paid to the contractors after an agreed period commencing the completion of the project.

Provisions consist of:

	2025	2024
Product warranties	₱563	₱607
Claims and assessments	234	146
	₱797	₱753

TMPC is periodically subject to examinations by the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) covering various tax types, including income tax, withholding taxes, value added tax (VAT), and other regulatory assessments. Based on ongoing BIR audits and consultations with the Company's external tax advisors, management believes that any resulting liabilities arising from these matters, if any, will not have material adverse impact on the Group's financial position or results of operations. The information usually required by PAS 37, Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets, is not disclosed on the grounds that it can be expected to prejudice the outcome of pending litigations. These provisions and contingencies relate to warranty claims and assessment.

Refundable and other deposits consist mainly of tenants' rental deposit from operating lease contracts with terms ranging from five to ten years. Rental deposits are obtained to secure faithful compliance of tenants' obligation under the lease contract and to answer for unpaid bills of lessees affecting the leased premises, any damage to the leased premises, and other similar costs. Rental deposits may also be applied to the unpaid rentals upon termination of the lease contract.

Unearned warranty revenue represents an unamortized portion of the warranty revenue to be recognized beyond one year.

21. Contract Balances and Cost to Obtain a Contract

The contract balances of the Group consist of the following:

	2025	2024
Contract Assets
Current	₱5,017	₱4,685
Noncurrent	5,487	5,185
	₱10,504	₱9,870
Contract Liabilities
Current	₱3,059	₱2,950

Contract assets are initially recognized for revenue earned from real estate sales as receipt of consideration is conditional on successful completion of installation. Upon completion of performance obligation and acceptance by the customer, the amounts recognized as contract assets are reclassified to trade residential and office development receivables.

Contract liabilities consist of collections from real estate customers which have not reached the 10.00% threshold to qualify for revenue recognition and excess of collections over the recognized receivables and contract assets based on percentage of completion.

The amount of revenue recognized in 2025 and 2024 from amounts included in contract liabilities at the beginning of the year amounted to ₱0.58 billion and ₱0.76 billion, respectively.

Cost to Obtain a Contract

The balances below pertain to the cost to obtain contracts included in 'Prepaid expenses' (Note 7):

	2025	2024
Balance at beginning of year	₱94	₱143
Additions during the year	316	464
Amortization	(399)	(513)
Balance at end of year	₱11	₱94

Performance Obligations

Information about Federal Land Group's performance obligations are summarized below:

Real estate sales

The Federal Land Group entered into contracts to sell with one identified performance obligation which is the sale of the real estate unit together with the services to transfer the title to the buyer upon full payment of contract price. The amount of consideration indicated in the contract to sell is fixed and has no variable consideration.

The sale of real estate unit covers condominium units, and Federal Land Group concluded that there is one performance obligation in each of these contracts. Federal Land Group recognizes revenue from the sale of these real estate projects under pre-completed contract over time during the course of the construction.

Payment commences upon signing of the contract to sell and the consideration is payable in cash or under various financing schemes entered with the customer. The financing scheme would include payment of 10%-100% of the contract price to be paid over a maximum of 60 months at a monthly payment based on amortization schedule with remaining balance payable (a) in full at the end of the period either through cash or external financing; or (b) through in-house financing which ranges from five (5) to ten (10) years with fixed monthly payment. The amount due for collection under the amortization schedule for each of the customer does not necessarily coincide with the progress of construction, which results in either a contract asset or contract liability.

After the delivery of the completed real estate unit, Federal Land Group provides one-year warranty to repair minor defects on the delivered condominium unit. This is assessed by the Parent Company as a quality assurance warranty and not treated as a separate performance obligation.

	2025	2024
Within one year	₱1,743	₱2,086

Transactions relating to the retirement plans are approved by the subsidiaries' respective Retirement Committees. The voting rights over the investments in the shares of entities within the Group are exercised by the Retirement Committee, who are either officers or directors of the subsidiaries.

28. Pension Plan

The Group provides defined benefit pension plans for substantially all of its employees. Provisions for pension obligations are established for benefits payable in the form of retirement pensions. Benefits are dependent on years of service and the respective employee's final compensation. Actuarial valuations are made annually.

Principal actuarial assumptions used to determine pension obligations follow:

	Date of Actuarial Valuation	2025
		Actuarial Assumptions
		Expected Return on Plan Assets	Salary Rate Increase	Discount Rate
Real estate	December 31, 2025	5.55%	4.00% to 8.00%	6.31% to 6.55%
Automotive	-do-	5.37% to 6.82%	2.00% to 7.00%	6.31% to 6.44%
Financial	-do-	5.00%	8.00%	6.38%
	Date of Actuarial Valuation	2024
		Actuarial Assumptions
		Expected Return on Plan Assets	Salary Rate Increase	Discount Rate
Real estate	December 31, 2024	3.69% to 5.34%	3.00% to 8.00%	6.07% to 6.18%
Automotive	-do-	5.50% to 6.38%	2.00% to 8.00%	5.50% to 6.12%
Financial	-do-	5.04%	8.00%	6.11%

The overall expected rate of return on plan assets is determined based on the market prices prevailing on that date applicable to the period over which the obligation is to be settled.

The Group does not currently have any asset-liability matching study.

29. Income Taxes

On March 26, 2021, RA No. 11534, otherwise known as Corporate Recovery and Tax Incentives for Enterprises (CREATE) Act was signed into law. CREATE reduced the RCIT rate from 30.00% to 25.00% depending on the criteria set by the law effective July 1, 2020. With the implementation of this Act, interest expense allowed as a deductible expense shall be reduced by 20.00% of the interest income subjected to final tax, compared to the 33.00% reduction prior to the Act. The regulations also provide for MCIT of 2.00% (prior to CREATE) and 1.00% from (July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2023 before reverting to 2.00%) on modified gross income and allow a NOLCO. The MCIT and NOLCO may be applied against the Group's income tax liability and taxable income, respectively, over a three-year period from the year of inception. For the taxable years 2020 and 2021, the NOLCO incurred can be carried over as a deduction for the next five (5) consecutive taxable years, pursuant to Revenue Regulation (RR) No. 25-2020.

	2025	2024	2023
Current	₱6,886	₱6,369	₱6,584
Deferred	(1,259)	(602)	61
Final	218	243	292
	₱5,845	₱6,010	₱6,937

The components of the Group's deferred taxes as of December 31, 2025 and 2024 are as follows:

Net deferred tax assets:

	2025	2024
Deferred tax assets on:

Net deferred tax liabilities	₱4,146	₱5,015

The Group recognized deferred tax expense (benefit) amounting to (₱352.46 million) and ₱694.25 million in other comprehensive income in 2025 and 2024, respectively.

NOLCO

As of December 31, 2025, the Group has incurred NOLCO before taxable year 2025 which can be claimed as deduction from the regular taxable income for the next three (3) consecutive taxable years.

Summary of the Group's NOLCO as follows:

Year Incurred	Availment Period	Amount	Expired	Applied	NOLCO Unapplied
2025	2026-2028	₱2,988	₱-	₱-	₱2,988
2024	2025-2027	3,507	-	-	3,507

TMPC is registered with the BOI as a:

- Participant in the Car Development Program and Commercial Vehicle Development Program.
- Participant in Comprehensive Automotive Resurgence Strategy (CARS) program. BOI approved TMPC's enrollment of its locally-produced vehicle model to the CARS program on June 17, 2016. Under the terms of registration, TMPC shall be entitled to Fixed Investment Support and Production Volume Incentive, subject to achievement of productive volume and localization of body shells and large plastic parts (Note 23).

30. Lease Commitments

Group as a lessee

The Group is a party under various lease agreements including the lease of premises occupied by the Parent Company, office space leased for the Group's branches, land leased for Federal Land Group's mall and gasoline station and lease of parking spaces with terms ranging from one (1) to 10 years.

The Group recognized interest expense on lease liabilities (included in 'Interest expense' in the consolidated statements of income) amounting to ₱16.17 million, ₱11.91 million, and ₱22.09 million in 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively. Rent expense from short-term leases and leases of low-value assets amounting to ₱205.15 million, ₱188.71 million, and ₱135.38 million in 2025, 2024, and 2023, respectively.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the carrying amounts of lease liabilities are as follows (Notes 19 and 20):

	2025	2024
Beginning balance	₱96	₱168
Additions	111	96
Accretion of interest	16	21
Payments	(137)	(210)
Adjustments	70	21
	₱156	₱96

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the future minimum rental payments are as follows:

	2025	2024
Within one year	₱51	₱32
After one year but not more than five years	104	86
	₱155	₱118

Group as a lessor

The Group has entered into commercial property leases on its investment properties consisting of office spaces, land, mall and parking spaces with lease terms ranging from five (5) to ten (10) years. The Group's rental income on these leases amounted to ₱1.64 billion, ₱1.67 billion and ₱1.51 billion in 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively (Note 9). The cost of rental services amounting to ₱889.67 million, ₱934.35 million and ₱905.15 million in 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively, includes maintenance fee, depreciation, repairs and maintenance, and taxes and licenses (Note 11).

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the future minimum rental receipts from these lease commitments are as follows:

	2025	2024
Within one year	₱2,965	₱2,861
After one year but not more than five years	3,214	3,158
More than five years	3,821	25,427

31. Purchase Price Allocation

Investment in MBTC

In 2025, the Group performed purchase price allocation relating to the purchase of additional shares of MBTC, representing 2.69% additional ownership interest (Note 8). The purchase price allocated resulted in ₱3.42 billion gain on bargain purchase recognized in the equity in net income, representing the difference between the Parent Company's share in the net fair values of MBTC's specific identifiable assets and liabilities determined at the acquisition date amounting to ₱12.19 billion over the Parent Company's cost of additional investment amounting to ₱8.77 billion.

Investment in MPIC

In 2024, the Group finalized its purchase price allocation relating to the additional acquisition of MPIC shares in 2023 (Note 8). As a result, the Parent Company recorded a net gain on bargain purchase of ₱0.57 billion recognized in the equity in net income, representing the difference between the Parent Company's share in the net fair values of MPIC's identifiable assets and liabilities that were determined at the acquisition date amounting to ₱6.71 billion over the cost of the additional investment amounting to ₱4.39 billion. and after considering the effect of dilution of interest over MPIC. The gain on bargain purchase was offset by the effect of the dilution in ownership interest where the Parent Company recognized a loss of ₱1.75 billion representing the difference between the carrying value of the investment in MPIC before and after deemed partial disposal of ownership interest.

32. Fair Value Measurement

The methods and assumptions used by the Group in estimating the fair value of the financial instruments are as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents

The fair value of cash and cash equivalents approximate the carrying amounts at initial recognition due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

Receivables

The fair value of receivables due within one year approximates their carrying amounts. The fair values of installment contracts receivable are based on the discounted value of future cash flows using the applicable rates for similar types of instruments. The discount rates used were 8.00% as of December 31, 2025 and 2024. For the long-term loan receivable, the Group used discounted cash flow analyses to measure the fair value of the loan based on the average bank lending rate for December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Due from and to related parties

The carrying amounts approximate fair values due to short-term in nature. Related party receivables and payables are due and demandable.

Financial assets at FVTPL

These pertain to the Group's investment in UITFs. UITFs are ready-made investments that allow pooling of funds from different investors with similar investments objectives. These UITFs are managed by professional fund managers and may be invested in various financial instruments such as money market securities, bonds and equities, which are normally available to large investors only. A UITF uses the mark-to-market method based on published NAV in valuing the fund's securities.

Financial assets at FVOCI - quoted

The fair value of quoted equity securities is based on the quoted market prices or binding dealer price quotations, without any deduction for transaction cost.

Financial assets at FVOCI - unquoted

The fair value of unquoted equity securities is estimated based on the market data approach that makes use of market multiples derived from a set of comparables. Multiples were determined that is most relevant to assessing the value of unquoted securities (e.g., earnings, book value). The selection of the appropriate multiple within the range is based on qualitative and quantitative factors specific to the measurement.

Derivative financial instruments

The fair values of interest rate swap transactions are derived using acceptable valuation method. The valuation assumptions are based on market conditions existing at the reporting dates.

Accounts and other payables

The fair values of accounts and other payables approximate the carrying amounts due to the short-term nature of these transactions.

Loans payable and bonds payable

Current portion of loans payable approximates its fair value due to its short-term maturity. Long-term portion of loans payable subjected to quarterly repricing is not discounted. Estimated fair value of long-term portion of loans payable with fixed interest and not subjected to quarterly repricing is based on the discounted value of future cash flows using applicable interest rates for similar types of loans as of reporting date. The interest rates used ranged from 2.03% to 6.03% and 2.22% to 6.03% as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Liabilities on purchased properties

Estimated fair value was based on the discounted value of future cash flows using the applicable interest rates for similar types of loans as of reporting date. Long-term payables were incurred in 2019 and 2012 with interest rates ranging from 3.00% to 3.25% per annum. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the liabilities on purchased properties are payable in the following month and thus the fair value approximates the carrying amounts.

The following tables summarize the carrying amount and fair values of financial assets and liabilities, as well as nonfinancial assets, analyzed based on the fair value hierarchy (see accounting policy on Fair Value Measurement), except for assets and liabilities where the carrying values as reflected in the consolidated statements of financial position and related notes approximate their respective fair values.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, no transfers were made among the three levels in the fair value hierarchy.

Inputs used in estimating fair values of financial instruments carried at cost and categorized under Level 3 include risk-free rates and applicable risk premium.

The fair value of the Group's investment properties has been determined based on valuations performed by third-party valuers.

The table below summarizes the valuation techniques used and the significant unobservable inputs valuation for each type of investment properties held by the Group:

	Valuation Techniques	Significant Unobservable Inputs
Land	Market Data Approach	Price per square meter, size, location, shape, time element and corner influence.
Building and Land Improvements	Income Approach or Cost Approach	Lease income growth rate, expected cash flows, and discount rate; Lineal and square meter, current cost of materials, labor and equipment, contractor's profits, overhead, taxes and fees

Description of the valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs used in the valuation of the Group's investment properties are as follows:

Valuation Techniques

Market Data Approach	A process of comparing the subject property being appraised to similar comparable properties recently sold or being offered for sale.
Income Approach	A process where all expected cash flows from the assets were projected and discounted using the appropriate discount rate reflective of the market expectations.
Cost Approach	A process of determining the cost to reproduce or replace in new condition the assets appraised in accordance with current market prices for similar assets, with allowance for accrued depreciation on physical wear and tear, and obsolescence.

Significant Unobservable Inputs

Reproduction Cost New	The cost to create a virtual replica of the existing structure, employing the same design and similar building materials.
Size	Size of lot in terms of area. Evaluate if the lot size of property or comparable conforms to the average cut of the lots in the area and estimate the impact of lot size differences on land value.
Shape	Particular form or configuration of the lot. A highly irregular shape limits the usable area whereas an ideal lot configuration maximizes the usable area of the lot which is associated in designing an improvement which conforms with the highest and best use of the property.
Location	Location of comparative properties whether on a Main Road, or secondary road. Road width could also be a consideration if data is available. As a rule, properties located along a Main Road are superior to properties located along a secondary road.

Significant Unobservable Inputs

Time Element	“An adjustment for market conditions is made if general property values have appreciated or depreciated since the transaction dates due to inflation or deflation or a change in investors’ perceptions of the market over time”. In which case, the current data is superior to historic data.
Discount	Generally, asking prices in ads posted for sale are negotiable. Discount is the amount the seller or developer is willing to deduct from the posted selling price if the transaction will be in cash or equivalent.
Corner influence	Bounded by two (2) roads.

33. Financial Risk Management and Objectives

The Group’s principal financial instruments are composed of cash and cash equivalents, financial assets at FVTPL and FVOCI, receivables, due from related parties, accounts and other payables, dividends payable, due to related parties, loans payable, bonds payable, liabilities on purchased properties and derivative financial instruments.

Exposures to credit, liquidity, foreign currency, interest rate, and equity price risks arise in the normal course of the Group’s business activities. The main objectives of the Group’s financial risk management are as follows:

- to identify and monitor such risks on an ongoing basis;
- to minimize and mitigate such risks; and
- to provide a degree of certainty about costs.

The use of financial derivative instruments (if any) is solely for the management of the Group’s financial risk exposures. It is the Group’s policy not to enter into derivative transactions for speculative purposes.

The Group’s respective financing and treasury functions focus on managing financial risks and activities as well as providing optimum investment yield and cost-efficient funding for the Group.

Credit Risk

The Group’s credit risks are primarily attributable to its financial assets. To manage credit risks, the Group maintains defined credit policies and monitors on a continuous basis its exposure to credit risks. Given the Group’s diverse base of counterparties, it is not exposed to large concentrations of credit risk.

Financial assets comprise cash and cash equivalents, receivables, due from related parties and investment securities. The Group adheres to fixed limits and guidelines in its dealings with counterparty banks and its investment in financial instruments. Bank limits are established on the basis of an internal rating system that principally covers the areas of liquidity, capital adequacy and financial stability. The rating system likewise makes use of available international credit ratings. Given the high credit standing of its accredited counterparty banks, management does not expect any of these financial institutions to fail in meeting their obligations.

In respect of installment receivables from the sale of properties, credit risk is managed primarily through credit reviews and an analysis of receivables on a continuous basis. The Group also undertakes supplemental credit review procedures for certain installment payment structures. Customer payments are facilitated through various collection modes including the use of postdated checks and auto-debit arrangements. Exposure to bad debts is not significant and the requirement for remedial procedures is minimal given the profile of buyers.

Maximum exposure to credit risk after taking into account collateral held or other credit enhancements

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the maximum exposure to credit risk of the Group's financial assets is equal to its carrying value except for installment contracts receivable with nil exposure to credit risk since the fair value of the related condominium and residential units collateral is greater than the carrying value of the installment contracts receivable.

a. Credit quality per class of financial assets

The credit quality of the financial assets was determined as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents - based on the nature of the counterparty and the Group's internal rating system.

Receivables - high grade pertains to receivables that had no default in payment; medium grade pertains to receivables with a history of being 30 to 90 days past due; and low grade pertains to receivables with a history of being over 90 days past due.

The table below shows the credit quality per class of financial assets based on the Group's rating system:

Liquidity risk

The Group monitors its cash flow position, debt maturity profile and overall liquidity position in assessing its exposure to liquidity risk. The Group maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed sufficient to finance operations and to mitigate the effects of fluctuation in cash flows. Accordingly, its loan maturity profile is regularly reviewed to ensure availability of funding through an adequate amount of credit facilities with financial institutions. Overall, the Group's funding arrangements are designed to keep an appropriate balance between equity and debt, to give financing flexibility while continuously enhancing the Group's businesses. To serve as back-up liquidity, management develops variable funding alternatives either by issuing debt or raising capital.

The tables below summarize the maturity profile of the Group's financial assets and liabilities based on undiscounted contractual payments:

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk is the risk that the value of financial instruments will fluctuate due to changes in foreign exchange rate. The Group's primary risk management objective is to reduce the Group's exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates. To manage the currency risk, the Group enters into hedging activities.

The Group's foreign currency-denominated financial instruments are included in cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, receivables, accounts and other payables and loans payable.

Cash and cash equivalents denominated in foreign currency amounted to US$53.90 million and JP¥1.00 billion as of December 31, 2025, US$80.38 million and JP¥1.42 billion as of December 31, 2024 and US$73.52 million and JP¥1.82 billion as of December 31, 2023.

Short-term investments denominated in foreign currency amounted to US$37.04 million in 2025 and nil in 2024 and 2023.

Receivables denominated in foreign currency amounted to US$20.64 million, US$19.34 million and US$15.97 million as of December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Accounts and other payables denominated in foreign currency amounted to US$198.71 million and JP¥12.77 million as of December 31, 2025, US$256.95 million and JP¥3.90 million as of December 31, 2024 and US$238.26 million and JP¥1.18 billion as of December 31, 2023.

Loans payables denominated in foreign currency amounted to US$5.70 million and JP¥20.61 billion as of December 31, 2025, US$6.50 million and JP¥22.01 billion as of December 31, 2024 and US$16.45 million and JP¥23.31 billion as of December 31, 2023.

In translating the foreign currency-denominated monetary assets and liabilities into peso amounts, the exchange rates used were ₱58.81 to US$1.00 and ₱0.38 to JP¥1.00 as at December 31, 2025, ₱58.01 to US$1.00 and ₱0.37 to JP¥1.00 as at December 31, 2024 and ₱55.57 to US$1.00 and ₱0.39 to JP¥1.00 as at December 31, 2023.

The following table demonstrates the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the Philippine peso-US dollar and Philippine peso-JP¥ exchange rates, with all variables held constant, of the Group's profit before tax (due to changes in the fair value of monetary assets and liabilities) on December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023. There is no other impact on the Group's equity other than those already affecting the consolidated statements of comprehensive income.

	Currency	Increase (Decrease) in foreign exchange rate	Increase (Decrease) in Income Before Tax
2025	US$	0.90	(₱62)
		(0.90)	62
	JP¥	(0.0139)	(10)
		0.0139	10
2024	US$	(2.41)	296
		2.41	(296)
	JP¥	(0.0247)	382
		0.0247	(382)
2023	US$	(2.51)	311
		2.51	(311)
	JP¥	(0.0233)	396
		0.0233	(396)

The Group determined the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rate by using the absolute average change in Philippine peso-US dollar and Philippine peso-JP¥ exchange rates for the past three (3) years.

Fair Value Hedge

The Parent Company's primary risk management strategy is to reduce the Parent Company's exposure to changes in foreign exchange rates. In this regard, the Parent Company designated a layer of its JPY-denominated long-term loan (the "Hedging Instrument") to hedge the variability in the fair value arising from the translation of its investment in Toyota Motor Corporation (TMC) (the "Hedged Item") amounting to ¥20.61 billion and ¥22.01 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, due to fluctuations in JPY/PHP foreign exchange (FX) rates. The hedged risk is the variability in the fair value arising from the translation of the investments (the Hedged Items) due to fluctuations in JPY/PHP FX rates (foreign currency risk). The hedging instrument is the ¥20.61 billion and ¥22.01 billion layer of the principal amount of its long-term loan with various lenders as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The terms of the hedging relationships will end in March 2027. The effectiveness of hedging relationship is tested prospectively. All designated hedging relationships were sufficiently effective as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Economic relation between the hedged item and the hedging instrument was qualitatively tested by matching their critical terms. The hedged items create a foreign currency risk on the translation of investments amounting to ¥20.61 billion and ¥22.01 billion as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively, while the hedging instruments create the exact offset of this risk. Since the critical terms of the hedged item and hedging instrument matched, a clear economic relationship was established. The Parent Company's and the counterparty's credit risk were monitored for adverse changes. The Parent Company assessed that the risk associated with them and the counterparty is considered minimal, at inception, and during the year and did not dominate the value changes that result from the economic relationship. The hedge ratio for hedge accounting purposes is 1:1 or 100% since only a layer of the long-term loan which exactly matches the notional amount of the hedged item was designated as hedging instrument.

Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate exposure management policy centers on reducing the Group's overall interest expense and exposure to changes in interest rates. Changes in market interest rates relate primarily to the Group's interest-bearing debt obligations with floating interest rate as it can cause a change in the amount of interest payments.

The Group manages its interest rate risk by leveraging on its premier credit rating and maintaining a debt portfolio mix of both fixed and floating interest rates. The portfolio mix is a function of historical, current trend and outlook of interest rates, volatility of short-term interest rates, the steepness of the yield curve and degree of variability of cash flows.

As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, except for the Parent Company's JPY loans, the Group has no financial instruments subject to floating interest rates. There is no sensitivity to the changes in interest rates on the Group's income before tax through the impact of floating rate borrowings because the risk is effectively hedged by an interest rate swap.

Cash Flow Hedge

Interest rate swap

The Parent Company entered into an interest rate swap ("IRS") agreement to hedge the variability in the interest cash flows arising from its floating rate loan with various lenders (the "Loan"), attributable to changes in the three-month JPY TONA ("3m JPY TONA") (Note 16). The hedged risk is variability in interest cash flows of the Loan attributable to changes in the 3m JPY TONA (interest rate risk). The hedged item is the interest cash flows on the Loan which is based on 3m JPY TONA (floored at 0%) + margin. The hedging instrument is an IRS under which the Parent Company will pay fixed interest at a rate of 0.852% to 1.255% per annum and receive variable interest based on 3m JPY TONA. The terms of the hedging relationships will end in March 2027. The effectiveness of hedging relationship is tested prospectively. The designated hedging relationship was sufficiently effective as of December 31, 2025 and 2024.

An economic relation between the hedged item and the hedging instrument was qualitatively tested by matching their critical terms. The hedged item creates an exposure to pay 3m JPY TONA (floored at 0%) + 0.65% to 0.80%, settled quarterly. The hedging instrument creates an exact offset of this exposure with a consequence of paying a fixed interest payment of 0.852% to 1.255% per annum. Since most of the critical terms of the hedged item and hedging instrument matched, a clear economic relationship was established. The Parent Company's and the counterparty's credit risk was monitored for adverse changes. The Parent Company assessed that the risk associated with them and the counterparty is considered minimal, at inception, and during the year and did not dominate the value changes that result from the economic relationship. The hedge ratio for hedge accounting purposes is 1:1 or 100% since the notional amount of the IRS exactly matches the notional amount of the Loan. The hedge ineffectiveness can arise from the counterparties' credit risk differently impacting the fair value movements of the hedging instrument and the hedged item.

The Group is holding the following hedging instruments designated as cash flow hedges as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

	Maturity
	Up to 3 months	> 3 to 6 months	> 6 to 12 months	> 1 to 2 years	More than 2 years
2025
Interest rate swap
Fixed interest rate (%)
¥20.61 billion until March 2027	1.255%	1.255%	1.255%	1.255%	-
2024
Interest rate swap
Fixed interest rate (%)
¥22.01 billion until March 2027	1.255%	1.255%	1.255%	1.255%	1.255%

In accordance with the terms of the loan, the Parent Company may prepay on the last day of an interest period applicable thereto, the whole or any part of the loan. In July 2025 and July 2024, the Parent Company prepaid ¥1.40 billion and ¥1.30 billion, respectively, and redesignated remaining balance of the loan.

The tables set out the outcome of the Group's hedging strategy, the carrying amounts of the derivatives the Group uses as hedging instruments and the changes in fair values used for measuring hedge ineffectiveness separately showing the effective and ineffective portions as of December 31, 2025 and 2024:

	December 31, 2025
	Carrying value	Change in fair value of hedged item used for measuring ineffectiveness	Effective portion recognized in OCI	Hedge ineffectiveness recognized in the consolidated statement of income
Floating rate loans
Interest rate swap
Derivative asset	¥48	¥48	¥48	¥-

December 31, 2024
	Carrying value	Change in fair value of hedged item used for measuring ineffectiveness	Effective portion recognized in OCI	Hedge ineffectiveness recognized in the consolidated statement of income
Floating rate loans
Derivative asset	P31	P31	P31	P-

The Group follows a prudent policy in managing its assets and liabilities so as to ensure that exposure to fluctuations in interest are kept within acceptable limits. There is no ineffectiveness recognized in the profit or loss as the changes in the fair value of the hedged items used as basis for recognizing hedge ineffectiveness equals to the carrying amount of the hedging instruments.

	2025	2024
Balance at beginning of year	P31	(P14)
Net unrealized gain (loss) on cash flow hedge	17	45
Balance at end of year (net of tax)	P48	P31

Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair values of investments in quoted equity securities could decrease as a result of changes in the levels of equity indices and the value of individual stocks. The Group is exposed to equity securities price risk because of financial assets at FVOCI held by the Group.

The table below shows the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the Philippine Stock Exchange index (PSEi), with all other variables held constant, of the Group's equity (through other comprehensive income) due to changes in the carrying value of the Group's financial assets at FVOCI. The analysis links PSEi changes, which proxies for general market movements, to individual stock prices through their betas. Betas are coefficients depicting the sensitivity of individual prices to market movements.

The sensitivity range is based on the historical volatility of the PSEi for the past year. The analysis is based on the assumption that last year's PSEi volatility will be more or less the same in the following year.

	Percentage change in PSEi	Increase (decrease) in total comprehensive income
2025	Increase by 19.28%	P321
	Decrease by 19.28%	(321)
2024	Increase by 23.48%	P385
	Decrease by 23.48%	(385)

The table below shows the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in the Tokyo Stock Exchange index (TSEi), with all other variables held constant, of the Group's equity (through other comprehensive income) due to changes in the carrying value of the Group's financial assets at FVOCI. The analysis links TSEi changes, which proxies for general market movements, to individual stock prices through their betas. Betas are coefficients depicting the sensitivity of individual prices to market movements.

The sensitivity range is based on the historical volatility of the TSEi for the past year. The analysis is based on the assumption that last year's TSEi volatility will be more or less the same in the following year.

	Percentage change in TSEi	Increase (decrease) in total comprehensive income
2025	Increase by 22.41%	₱4,376
	Decrease by 22.41%	(4,376)
2024	Increase by 17.69%	3,165
	Decrease by 17.69%	(3,165)

34. Basic/Diluted Earnings Per Share

The basic/diluted earnings per share attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company for the years ended December 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023 were computed as follows (amounts in millions, except earnings per share):

	2025	2024	2023
a. Net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company	₱33,675	₱28,783	₱29,313
b. Effect of dividends declared to voting and perpetual preferred shareholders of the Parent Company	(366)	(365)	(365)
c. Net income attributable to common shareholders of the Parent Company	33,309	28,418	28,948
d. Weighted average number of outstanding common shares of the Parent Company (Note 22)	215	215	215
e. Basic/diluted earnings per share (c / d)	₱154.72	₱132.00	₱134.46

Basic and diluted earnings per share are the same due to the absence of dilutive potential common shares.

35. Operating Segments

Segment Information

For management purposes, the Group is organized into business units based on their products and activities and has the following reportable segments:

- Real estate is engaged in real estate and leasing, development and selling of properties of every kind and description, as well as ancillary trading of goods such as petroleum, non-fuel products on wholesale or retail basis, maintenance of a petroleum service station, engaging in food and restaurant service and acting as a marketing agent for and in behalf of any real estate development company or companies;
- Financial institutions are engaged in the banking and insurance industry and financing institution;
- Automotive operations are engaged in the assembly, manufacture, importation, sale and distribution of all kinds of automobiles including automobile parts, accessories, and instruments;
- Infrastructure is engaged in the water distribution, toll operation, power sector, hospitals and rail; and
- Others pertain to other corporate activities of the Group (i.e., capital-raising activities, acquisitions and investments).

The Chief Operating Decision Maker (CODM), which is the Executive Committee, monitors the operating results of the Group for making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Segment performance is evaluated based on revenue, earnings before interest, taxes and depreciation/amortization (EBITDA) and pretax income which are measured similarly under PFRS Accounting Standards, except for EBITDA. EBITDA is computed by reconciling net interest income (expense) and provision for income taxes to the net income and adding back depreciation and amortization expenses for the year.

In 2025, 2024 and 2023, there were no revenue transactions with a single external customer which accounted for 10% or more of the consolidated revenue from external customers. Intragroup transactions were eliminated during consolidation.

Segment Assets

Segment Liabilities

Segment liabilities are obligations incurred by each of the operating segments from its operating activities.

Intersegment transfers or transactions are entered into under the normal commercial terms and conditions that would be available to unrelated third parties. Segment revenue, segment expense and segment results include transfers between operating segments. Those transfers are eliminated during consolidation.
